Axe wielder ordered to keep peace

YORK REGION — Two men charged with possessing weapons dangerous to the public, appeared in Newmarket court last week, and after hearing a lengthy story which led up to the arrest of the two, by York Regional Police, Judge Ian Munro convicted one, and dismissed the charges against the other.

Larry Bews, 25, of Oshawa and Hani Dagher, 28, of Markham, both pleaded not guilty to the charges laid by police June 28, after they had been arrested on Orchard Park Blvd. in Richmond Hill.

Constable Robert Cheevers testified that he came across the two men while on patrol in the area, Bews had a tire iron in his possession, and Dagher an axe.

The constable said he saw the two men with arms upheld, struggling. He told the court Bews was bleeding from a cut on the forearm when he intervened.

Constable Cheevers said Bews dropped the tire iron when he saw him approaching and told him, "I'm glad you are here". He said he asked Dagher twice to surrender the axe before his request was granted.

Bews told the court that he had been attending a wedding with his wife and was on his way home when the incident occurred.

Bews said a car driven by Dagher followed his vehicle so closely that he could not see the headlights behind him, he told the court that when he came to a stop at Highway 7 at Thornhill, Dagher pulled into the lane beside him and started yelling obscenities at his wife, then followed his vehicle again as he proceeded to Orchard Park Blvd.

The 25 year old Bews, said he saw Dagher get out of his vehicle and go to the trunk where he removed an axe, then started towards his stationary car. The young man told the court that he quickly took off his jacket and grabbed a tire iron which was under the seat of his vehicle.

Bews said Dagher swung the axe and he raised his arm and grabbed the weapon and held it, but was cut in the process.

Japan tires rejected

YORK REGION — The York Regional Police Commission last week accepted the tender of Firestone Canada for 94 tires at a cost of $4,683.30.

Chief Bruce Crawford explained that the lowest tender was submitted by the Service Tire Company for Toyo Japan Tires. The Chief told the Board that Toyo are a new tire, and the quality is unknown. The Chief said he had serious doubts the quantity required would be available, and said the warranty aspect was also in doubt.

Snowmobile to be traded

YORK REGION — The York Regional Police Commission last week agreed to purchase a 1976 Olympic Snowmobile from the River Edge Marina in Keswick.

Police Chief Bruce Crawford told the Board the force has three snowmobiles at the present time, the oldest of which will be traded for the new machine. The Chief told the Commission that the snowmobiles are used during winter months to take officers into hard to reach areas of the region.
