Greater deliverance needed

By Howard Minaker
Canada has just paid tribute to its brave fighting men who gave their lives on foreign soil for the preservation of freedom.

Yes, many thousands died to preserve the freedom we enjoy and appreciate so little.

There is, however, a greater liberty and more important deliverance than could ever be purchased on a human battlefield. All of earth's bloody battles; all of its scientific weapons; all of its conferences or treaties have been less than useless in overcoming this dreadful scourge. The beautiful maiden, the stalwart youth, the reigning monarch, the government leader, the brilliant intellectual, the mother, father, children, are all infected with this dread disease. Like many devastating plagues it works unseen and is not easily discernible. It cannot be seen under the earth's most powerful microscope and it does not show on earth's best X-ray equipment. It blinds people by making flickering lights of this world look very bright and they walk over precipices to their doom. It dulls human ears so lying, garbled voices of this world sound good and reasonable as they accept the way of death and despair. It even makes its tortured ones dance, drink and celebrate on the trap door to hell, as they chant, "Let us eat, drink and be merry for tomorrow we die."

I refer to SIN, earth's worst torturer and total killer of spirit, soul and body.

There is an antidote, a remedy, a total cure. Jesus Christ, God's Son came to this earth, shed His blood as the complete and only cure. Jesus who knew no sin, became sin for us that we might become the righteousness of God in Him.

Mrs. Walter Smith drops poppies in remembrance of the Stouffville area men killed in the two world wars. It was the wreath laying ceremony at the cenotaph Sunday afternoon. A service was held at the Legion Hall prior to the parade to the civic square. The sun shone brightly as the outdoor service was held. — Don Bernard

Parkview news

Residents enjoy slides

On Wednesday, Nov. 12, our Activities Director Mrs. Bernice Ricker arranged a show of slides of a variety of events that have taken place at Parkview during the past year or two. Residents saw themselves in slides of the opening of the new Parkview apartment building last January, they saw images of themselves, in various poses, participating in different forms of recreation which are arranged from time to time.
For example, Rev. Jeffrey was snapped in his easter bonnet; we zoomed in on Mrs. Hawtin getting a strike while bowling or how about Mr. Nighswander wheeling down a corridor in a wheelchair. (For those who are not familiar with Parkview Home, Mr. Nighswander is our administrator). Our Residents thoroughly enjoyed the afternoon of slides.

The regular Thursday evening program was also of slides. Mr. Ewart Stiver delighted the Residents with his excellent pictures of England on Nov. 13. We were pleased to have Mr. Steve Chaloner conduct the Sunday evening service of worship on Nov. 16. Mrs. Heather Chaloner, besides being the wife of Mr. Chaloner, is also our Director of Nursing, and she sang a lovely solo during the service.

Some recent visitors to Parkview include: Edna and Don Snider of Bracebridge for Mrs. Laura Smith; N. Keffler for Nellie Bond; Mrs. Elmer Burkholder of Markham for Mrs. Londa Brother; Mrs. W.G. Flowers of Stouffville for Mrs. Nora Burton and Mrs. Ida Tindall; Dora May of Goodwood for Daniel Wagg; Landon Steckley for Mr. Alvin Winger and Roy Moyers; Mrs. Vic Morgan and Lillian Borland of Markham for Mrs. E. Osborn; Rev. Angus and Catherine MacKay of London, Ontario for Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hawtin; George Staley and family of Oshawa for Mrs. Bella Staley; Mr. and Mrs. C. Greenlaw of Toronto for Martha Donaghy.
