Parkview News

Church band plays

The Residents of Parkview appreciated the young people from the Stouffville Missionary Church band, who played for them on Thursday, Nov. 20.

On Friday afternoon a film entitled "The Fable" was shown to the residents. It certainly brought back many memories for each of them as it was one of the "silent movies". Those who watched this were well entertained and stayed on to view the second film "Life Times 9".

The biggest attraction of the week was the Crafts and Bake sale on Wednesday afternoon. Hundreds of visitors came from near and far to this, and it was a real success. We were very grateful for all the gifts which had been either donated or made very skilfully by many of the residents and staff. This was the best sale Parkview has ever had, and we would like to thank all those who had any part in it. The proceeds will be put towards the purchase of a van for the residents.

The Rev. Stanley Grant was the speaker at our Sunday evening service and we were very pleased to have his wife and daughter Colleen sing a solo each.

Recent visitors to the Home include: Mr. and Mrs. A. Heise of Hagersville for Mr. Winger; He also had Helen Lebieck from Nottawa visit with him; Mrs. M. Pugh of Prince Albert for Mrs. Nora Burton; Mrs. E. Wood and Mrs. O. Sloan of Schomberg and Velma Botham and Rita Scott of Lloydtown for Asa Byers; Andrew and Bessie Hall of Bright for Mr. and Mrs. Hawtin; Barb and Claude Osborn of Stroud for Mrs. E. Osborn; Wayne Brown of Mattawa for Mrs. M. Jones; Howard and Darlene La Rose for Nellie Bond; Ralph Miller of Oakville for Miss Miller; Joyce, Norm and Bryan; Dennie of Orangeville for Bessie Dennie; Joyce, Doug, Julie and Jane Stotesbury of Stayner for Little Stotesbury; L.B. Wagg of Lindsay for Dan Wagg; Wes James of Port Credit for Miss N. James and Mrs. E. Schneider and Family of Bloomingdale for Mrs. F. Pugh.

Mankind tests God's patience

By Howard Minaker
 The Edmonton Eskimos won the 1975 Grey Cup by the smallest margin possible in a game played in Calgary on the Lord's Day.

It would be difficult to know whose aches are the most severe - the players, or their supporters.

Many thousands know little about a celebration that does not include losing their sense and judgment through drunkenness. How unfortunate are those people who must depend on such props to have a "good time".

When God created man, He made him with an intense longing for communion with his Creator. This explains the continuous searching in the human nature which cannot be satisfied by any other than God.

God also set aside one day in seven as His day for man's rest and for worship. When our economy required workmen to work six days, we managed to honour God and His house on His day. Now we work five days and in some cases, four, and are not satisfied without also taking God's day for our pleasure and sport.

When I think of how people abuse and slander God, it appalls me. I cannot understand His goodness and His

Why should He allow His gift of health to rest upon the wicked? Why should He spare the mocker, and the blasphemer? The Bible tells us that He is not willing that any should perish but all should come to the knowledge of the truth.

Any person who is lost must go against God's Will, refuse His Provision for their salvation and disregard His many warnings.

Jesus Christ is the only way to everlasting life and eternal happiness.

Volunteers needed at Green Gables

BLOOMINGTON — Green Gables Nursing Home in Bloomington is looking for volunteers.

No particular training is needed, just spare time to spend with an elderly patient to write a letter or read a story, or play chess or checkers. Drivers are also needed.

Those wanting to lend a hand should call 640-4360.

Bert Sears (standing) and Ray Savoie delivered this bookcase to the senior citizens' apartments on Elm Rd. last week. It was donated by the Stouffville Lions Club and built by Mr. Savoie. Books are now needed to fill the shelf and may be brought to the Elm Rd. building. The Lions will also donate television for the building's lounge.
