

Dear Santa

This year we've found the perfect place to do our Christmas shopping! For Kevin, he's the one who really digs modern, there are some super mod lamps he'll be sure to enjoy. For Nana there's this most beautiful floor lamp. Is it ever gorgeous!

These folks at Living Lighting have the best selection of Colonial lamps in warm honey maple, delicate hand-blown glass or ceramic ... just the gifts for Bill and Sue and Tom's folks.

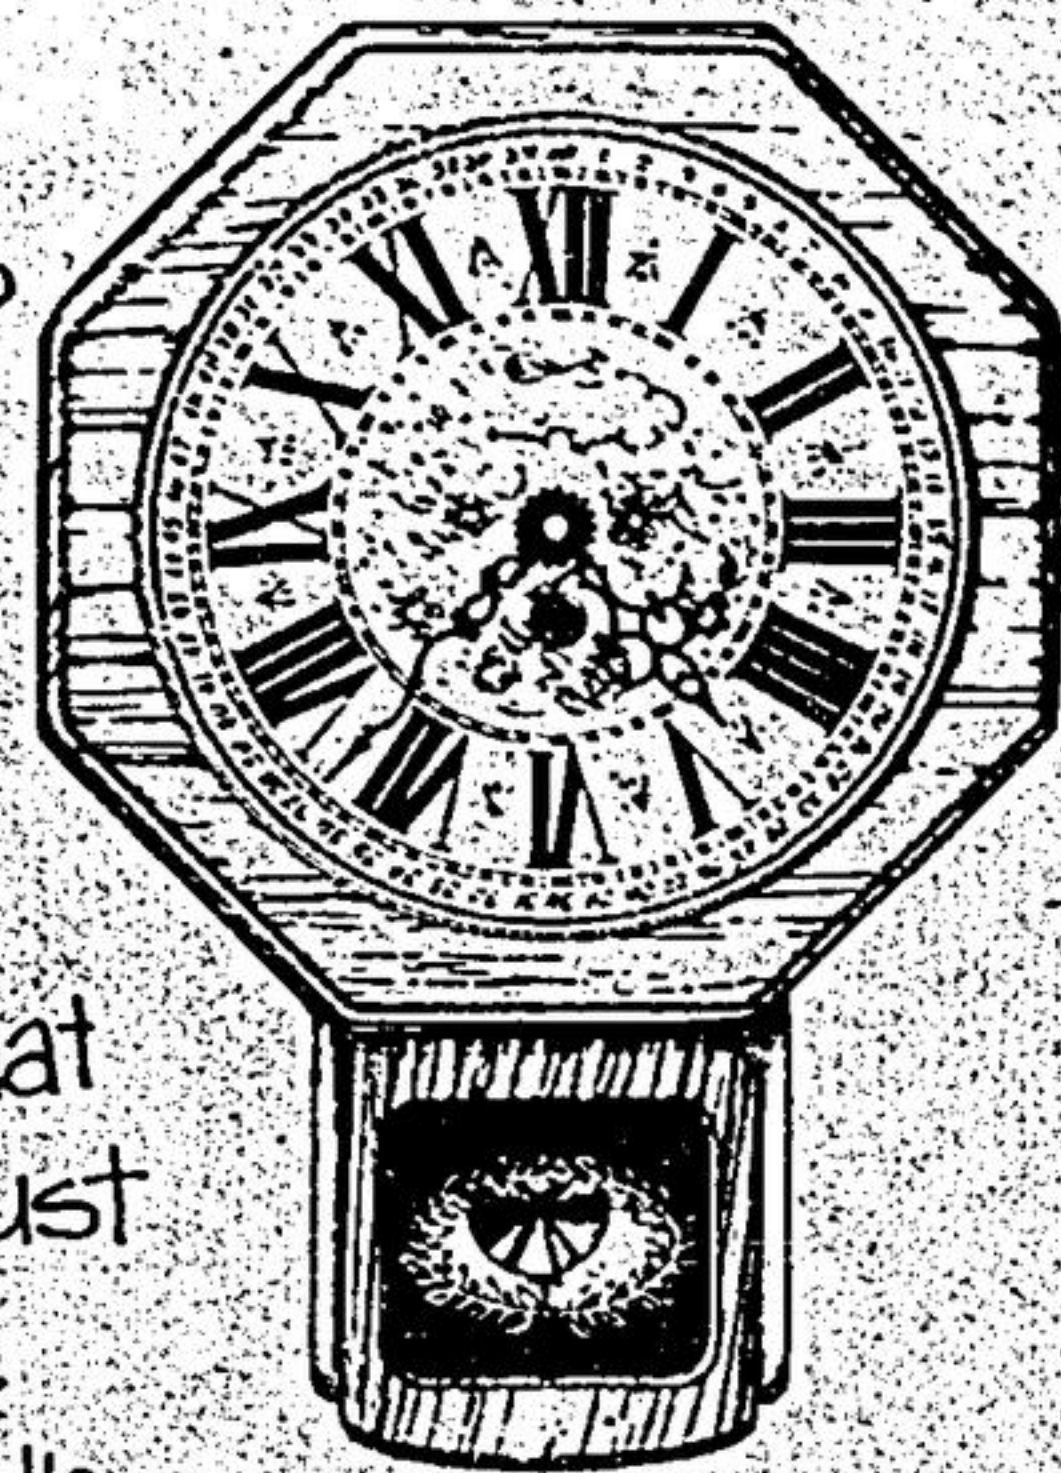

Even if we pick one that doesn't suit a particular room the friendly salesman said that we could exchange it without any problem.

You know Santa, the Living Lighting man is so helpful in picking out nice gifts that anyone would love to get this time of year.

For my parents there's this nice pine clock that looks just like the one in the old red school house that Dad went to. Last, but not least ... for us there's this fantastic chandelier that I've had my eye on for a couple of weeks now. I know just the spot where it will hang.

P.S. Gee Santa... maybe you should shop there!
