Atom voted MVP

STOUFFVILLE — Although losing in the finals, the local atom all-stars produced the most valuable player at a recent tournament in Bradford. Barry Smith garnered the over-all award, with Peter Sinclair picking up two individual game trophies.

After winning three straight, Stouffville lost 2-1 in the finals to Bolton.

In league play last week, the atoms whipped Newcastle 5-1 and Port Hope 9-0. They trail Pickering Village in the league by a half game.

The tournament included decisive wins for Stouffville, 4-2 over Keswick, 7-1 over Stroud and 10-0 over St. Benedicts. Team scoring included: Barry Smith six; Peter Sinclair, four; Glen Dobson, three; Mark Murphy, one; Brent Barton, three; Bradley Jones, two and Tim Yeomans, one.

The Newcastle contest saw two goals by Smith and one apiece to Yeomans, Murphy and Brian Todd. Smith was again the big gun against Port Hope, potting five. Sinclair had two and Todd and Jones one each.

The atoms play again Saturday, 6 p.m.
