some of the residents at Parkview Home. Peter Koopman, well known to many in Stouffville, conducted the first of a series of art classes for the residents, and he discovered, as did some of his students, (much to their own amazement), that many of them could do what they thought they couldn't, and the results were pretty good for a first try.

The men have begun a Prayer group on a Tuesday afternoon, and quite a number of them met together for the first time last week. It is good that they have seen a need for something like this and are getting on with the job.

Thursday evening was thoroughly enjoyed by all who were present, as Mrs. Evelyn Wagg gave an organ recital and Mrs. Mildred Shirk, (who is one of our staff members) and Mrs. Evelyn Byer sang together. We do appreciate these ladies from the Stouffville Christian Church, taking time to share with our residents.

On Friday evening Mr. Shantz showed three films at Parkview, and although there weren't too many folks available for these, those who did see them were kept well amused, particularly by the first two.

Our Sunday evening service was very well attended once again, and we were thrilled to have Frank Barkey from the Christian Business Men's Committee in Agincourt. He was accompanied by three young people — Elfie, Brian and Dave, who sang several gospel songs, and two other business men, who shared in the service.

We are all glad to have Dr. John Button back with us again after his vacation in Florida.

The Stouffville Singers, under the direction of Barbara Sibbick, will tackle a Christmas favorite in two performances next week. The Messiah, Part One, by George Fredrick Handel will be performed at Stouffville United Church, Monday, Dec. 15 and at Grace Anglican Church,

Markham, Tuesday, Dec. 16. Time both nights is 7:30 p.m. Solo singers include — Bill Bates (tenor), Jack Jeffrey (bass), Anne Simons (contralto) and Jean Hammond (soprano). In the photo Mrs. Sibbick leads the choir in a practice session. —Ted Wilcox

Voice of Bethel Spiritual safety needed

By Howard Minaker

Our provincial government is legislating protective measures to keep you and me alive longer. After Jan. 1, we must buckle up our seat belts or face a summons and fine. I must confess that I have been one of the 75 percent who have not always used seat belts.

It seems our Highway, Building, and Consumer codes are all designed to protect us from our own carelessness, or that of others.

How ironic that we must, in many instances, be compelled to protect ourselves. What is it in human nature that causes such reckless behaviour?

What could possess a pedestrian to run across four lanes of traffic, dodging death, to save a few minutes by catching a bus?

Sometimes we have watched an impatient driver crowd an oncoming vehicle off the road to save a few minutes. Who can explain this impulsiveness that could end in death?

It would be very hard to give a sensible reason for such action. A much greater disregard for safety exists around us. I refer to a greater tragedy than a fatal accident. I speak of the tragedy of experiencing spiritual death.

Our life on earth is brief and we are here to prepare for a more important and longer life hereafter.

God our Creator was so concerned about this spiritual life that He sent His Son to explain its importance and warn against losing it. Like our Government, He could force us to come to Him. There are no conscripts in His army; they are all willing followers choosing life instead of death and Heaven instead of Hell.
