Death saddens Christmas

By ANNE LONEY CLAREMONT — Many friends in Claremont were saddened by the sudden death of William Lyle Gliddon at Port Perry on Christmas Day. He was a former resident of the village and his family were students at the Public School. Our sympathy goes to his wife, Ann Udell, son

Wilfred of St. Catharines and daughter Lynne (Mrs. Al Bertrand) of Port Perry, and grandchildren, Jason and Collette Bertrand. Services were held on Saturday Dec. 27, at 2 p.m. in the chapel of McDermott and Panabaker. The Morning Unit of the UCW will meet at the home of Mrs. Jack Ward on Monday, Jan. 12, at 9:30 a.m. The guest speaker will be Miss Florence MacIvride of Claremont. Her topic will be "Jamaica." The Roll Call: "A New Year's Thought." Please bring a friend. Coffee Morning will be held in the Baptist Sunday School Room Wednesday, Jan. 14, at 10 a.m. Supervision for the children will be available in the nursery. All ladies are welcome.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. W.J. Briggs during the holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cowling of Weston. Mr. Briggs is home, convalescing after another stay in hospital. Their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Metro Holodmiuk and family, Dennis, Douglas, Arlene and Linda visited with them last Saturday.

Susan Murray has returned to her studies at Queen's University after spending the holidays with her prents, Mr. and Mrs. James Murray. Robert Vanderwater of Belleville was also a guest of the Murrays during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hockley with sons, Greg and Donnie, and Donnie's friend, Mary Baker of Stouffville, spent part of the holidays with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Malcolm at their home in Sunderland. Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Keith Hockley and sons of Uxbridge were dinner guests of the Hockleys. Mr. and Mrs. Stan McMullen and sons, Ron and Gary, are home after a two week's holiday in Florida. During a few days at Christmas they were guests of Mrs. Ken Ward and her mother, Mrs. Hutton, who have rented a house in New Port Richey, north of Tampa.

Winnie Elson of Markham spent several days visiting with Mrs. Harry Porter.

Mrs. B.E. Hanthorn and Son, Glen, had a grand holiday with their family. At Christmas they were with Mrs. Hanthorn's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hanthorn and Pamela, Cindy, Randy, Sherry and Scott at Maple Grove, and also visited with daughters and sons-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Burke and Kim, Eddie, Paddy, Mathew and Kara, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sheehan and Paul, Wayne and Keith, all of Bowmanville. New Years they spent with their other daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Browning and Lana and Mark, in Barrie.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Burnell were Christmas guests at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Larry and Barbara Burnell, and sons, John, Bill and Ted, along with Mary and Basil Graham and Barbara's brother Bob Songhurst, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Timms and Debbie of Oshawa.

Social services budget a problem

DURHAM REGION — Social services here will cost nine per cent more than the 1975 budget in Durham Region, the social services committee was told last week. A 30-percent rise in applications for general welfare is expected, according to Commissioner Doug Johns. The province is restricting budget increases to 5.5 per cent next year, however.

Church is new home for group

Renovations are now nearing completion and the Cedar's of Musselman craft group have moved their operation into the 9th line church at the lake. Ballantrae United Church leased the building, for a minimal charge, to the group which is federally funded through the Local Employment Assistance Program. While the male employees finish the inside work the women have the craft work area set up and fully functional. The men will go into woodworking and cabinet making work when the renovations are completed. According to the project manager, Margaret Gibbons, the government's recently announced funding cutbacks will not affect the group this year as their funding has already been approved. Catherine Whelan is shown here putting the finishing touches on a purse she is making. In the background can be seen some other examples of the group's handiwork, which includes wallets, hats and dolls. A major source of income has been the production of silk-screened t-shirts. The group takes orders for custom designed shirts.

Ice rink anxiously awaited

By MILDRED McTAGGART

Holiday festivities continued this past week with the New Years' Eve Dance at the Community Centre. The ice surface is being built up slowly on the rink and the youngsters are waiting anxiously to make use of it.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hicks were in Tilsonberg for Christmas and spent part of the holiday week with Mrs. Hicks' father, Mr. John Kent, and other relatives.

A speedy recovery is wished for Harry Newman who is in the Toronto General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lee and family and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Morden and Mary Lou have returned from a Christmas in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Morden entertained the Morden and Hooker families on New Years' Day.

Mr. and Mrs. James Paddock Rd., were pleased to celebrate Christmas at the home of their daughter Mrs. Tom Dunford, Oshawa. Their three other daughters and families from Pembroke, Omeme and Buchhorn were also present. Sandy Dunford has been visiting with her grandparents.

At the end of the year the Naturalists of North America do an Annual Bird Count and Edgerton Pegg reports that thirty-five species were seen in the Pickering District on Dec. 26th.

House gutted in fire

THORNHILL — A fire that completely gutted a $80,000 home on Raymond Dr., is believed to have started while the owner was attempting to repair the furnace.

The home of George Schneider went on fire around two o'clock Sunday afternoon. The blaze is believed to have started in the basement, near the furnace.

According to the police Mr. Schneider became uncontrollable after the fire department arrived and he was later admitted to Branson Hospital for observation.
