IGA squad ties Bowmanville

STOUFFVILLE — The IGA novice team tied Bowmanville 2-2 on Jan. 3 after holding a 1-0 lead through most of the game. Bowmanville retaliated with two quick goals in the third period before Mike Feasby scored from George Preskurkas and Doug McQuiggie to tie it. Kenny Burrows fired the first marker and Darrel Brown tended the nets well.

Stouffville picked up a consolation trophy in a tournament here over the holidays as they downed Uxbridge twice and Markham once. The first game was a loss to Whitby. In the tourney, Mike Feasby tallied six, Kenny Burrows two and George Preskurkas, Jeff Stover and Paul MacEwen one each.

At an Uxbridge tournament on Dec. 30, the IGA squad defeated Oshawa in the first round of play before losing 2-1 to Bowmanville.

The team next plays Saturday against Lindsay in exhibition.
