

Among other games played last Saturday, Hathaway Decorators and Becker's Milk ground to a 1-1 tie in novice house league. Games involving both house and all-star teams will be played starting tomorrow night as part of Whitechurch - Stouffville Minor Hockey Week.

Clipper win streak extends to six with decisive victories

By PETE SANDERSON
STOUFFVILLE — With recent 7-1 and 4-1 wins over Bowmanville, and a 5-2 conquest of Frankford, the Stouffville Clippers have extended their unbeaten streak to six, losing last to Cobourg on Dec. 29.

These New Year heroes have vaulted the Ken May Real Estate crew into sole possession of third place as they rapidly close the gap on second-place Lindsay.

One week ago Tuesday, the Clippers bombed Bowmanville 7-1 in a chippy affair that saw 85 minutes in penalties assessed by referee Gord Paterson. Despite being outshot 45-28, the Clippers dominated play. Peter Fitzpatrick scored twice for the winners as did Doug Taylor. Andy Leitch, Mike Spionnick and Kevin Barrick notched singles to round out the Stouffville scoring.

picked up three assists for a four point night.

Sunday night, the May Real Estate crew returned to Bowmanville to score a 4-1 triumph. Dave Mumford, Ted Assinck, Brad Hunt and Jeff Forfar scored for the Clippers. Paul Albrecht spoiled Jack Holder's shut-out bid midway through the second period.

The Clippers remain idle this Saturday night, but return to action against Bowmanville here at the Stouffville arena, 8 p.m. next Tuesday. Eight league games remain.

The lines of Barrick-Assinck-Wightman and Taylor — FitzPatrick — Meakes have looked exceptionally cohesive, and the defense pairings of Spionnick-Clarridge and Roy-Norton are proving solid defense to go along with the excellent goaltending of Jack Holder and Rick Marshman.

The Clippers have been playing inspired "team" hockey under coach Don McBeth's direction. Should it continue, they will be a power to be reckoned with in the upcoming play-offs.

chances by Boadway, who played an excellent game.

Sunday's game was a horse of a different color as only a third-period goal by Paul Barry spoiled Markham's bid for a shut-out.

Stouffville goalie Kevin Berry fended well as time and again his defence was caught up. The B-H boys were caught more than once watching the puck as Markham players had little trouble breaking around them.

The Stouffville club meetings Ajax in an exhibition, till this Thursday at 7 p.m., and travels to Port Hope Friday night for the first game of OMHA play-offs.

Midget A's end season with win

STOUFFVILLE — After successfully competing league competition with a 2-0 win over Uxbridge last week, the Becker's Milk midget A's enter play-offs tonight. They take on Port Hope here at 9:15.

In Uxbridge, Brad Steel's goaltending thwarted a determined effort by the Uxbridge team. Scoring opened at 3:19 as Jeff Williams scored from Stephen Price and Harold Wideman. Glen Gibson salted the game away 10 seconds into the third period on passes from Steve Schell and Bob Hughes.

The win closes a successful regular league schedule, with only one loss to mar an otherwise unblemished record.

In exhibition tournament play, however, the Becker's men have suffered two losses in an effort to play higher calibre teams. This was the case Thursday in Stouffville as the Claire Lea juveniles outmuscled and outscored the local midgets.

In the penalty department it was Claire Lea 20 minutes, Stouffville six. In goals, however, Claire Lea had a 10-6 advantage.

Midget manager Bruce Burton called the officiating in the game "rather inconsistent." He said Stouffville's Harold Wideman was cut for stitches by a Claire Lea high-stick that went uncalled, and one Stouffville goal was disallowed as the referee said he didn't see the puck in the net.

Glen Gibson and Steve Schell cornered Stouffville scoring with three goals, one assist each. Bob Hughes and Harold Wideman each assisted twice, and Stephen Price once.

Local skater ranks 7th in Canadian junior finals

STOUFFVILLE — Peter Mellon of Tindale Road chalked one up to experience after competing in the Canadian junior men's finals last week in London, Ontario.

He finished a respectable seventh in the field, and was fourth overall in the figures category.

Peter said he "learned a lot" from the experience. Having the large crowd and television cameras, he said, "really felt neat."

Now he plans to work on his eighth and final "figure" and "says he wants to 'keep going and try again' in skating competition.

Novice hockey team walks over Pickering

STOUFFVILLE — Led by Darren Hardy on Saturday night, the IGA novice team demolished the visiting Pickering squad 10-0 in a four-point game.

Darren Hardy had a big night with four goals, two assists, followed by Kenny Burrows, two goals, one assist, and Mike Feasby, one goal, two assists.

Paul MacEwen, George Preskourkas and Marek Alexander all fire one apiece, with John Parcells picking up an assist. Darrel Brown and Jimmy Stewart were both credited with the shut-out.

Stouffville has four league games remaining, with three in the last week of January: Jan. 27, 29 and 31.

In an exhibition match with Lindsay last week, Stouffville triumphed 2-1 on goals by Jeff Stover and Craig Vaughan. Donny Brooks and Mike Feasby assisted.

Atoms stand number one

STOUFFVILLE — With a 13-1-2 record, the Edward Murphy atoms stand in first place in their league.

Recent wins include a 3-0 victory over Uxbridge and a 3-3 tie against the same team.

On Jan. 9, single goals went to Bryan Todd, Tim McNeill and Bradley Jones. Todd assisted once.

Jan. 13, the atoms came back from three goals down to knot the score. Tim Yeomans potted two and Mark Murphy one.

Novice house league games
