Mr. and Mrs. Wilnot Hill and daughter Barbara, are home from a holiday in Hawaii.

Peddie of Claremont; Mrs. Lounsbury, captain for Balsam, Mt. Zion area; co-captains, Mrs. W. Scott, Uxbridge and Mrs. Hugh Pugh, Ashburn; secretary — treasurer, Mrs. Bill

Newman, Ashburn; service to patients and transportation, Mrs. Glen Manderson, Balsam; and Nominations, Mrs. Les Parker of Claremont.

Plans are underway for the April Cancer Campaign, canvassers will be knocking on your doors, beginning April 1 (today) for donations.

We are glad to see John Paton home from Ajax-Pickering Hospital where he had to spend his 84th birthday. Mrs. Paton, also has not been well for some time and, at present, is confined at home with an attack of rheumatic fever.

At their pot luck luncheon, the senior citizens elected Margaret Gall as president to replace Margaret Baker who has resigned. Mrs. Baker was a very considerate and popular president, but, no doubt, Mrs. Gall will be a worthy successor.

We regret the omission of Diane Lloyds name from the guest list of Louise Redshaw's birthday.
