Missions Weekend

By EVELYN MILSTED GORNLEY — The special "Missions Weekend" at the Heise Hill Church will begin with an Indian dinner at 6 p.m. on Saturday, May 1.

There will be pictures and a discussion on India where the minister, Rev. James Sider, served as a missionary. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Sider who have served in Nicaragua, Central America, will be the special speakers at the services on Sunday, May 2 at 11 a.m. and again at 7:30 p.m. Every one is cordially invited to attend these specials.

The Ontario Bible College Choir of Toronto, all forty voices, will be presenting a special musical program at the Heise Hill Church on Monday, May 10 at 7:30 p.m.

A bus load of ladies from Heise Hill and the local area attended the annual Women's Auxiliary Convention on Saturday at Wainfleet.

The "Slaves for Missions" project is still continuing with the young people of the Missionary Church on Saturday, May 1 and 8. They are willing to do any type of work with all the proceeds going to their project. Contact their president, Doug Elliott at 887-5303 for information or appointments.

Ladies from the Missionary Church attended the annual W.M.S. convention on Tuesday at the Banfield Memorial Church in Willowdale.

Mrs. Aylmer Gray is a patient in York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill.

John Campey has completed his first year at Queen's University at Kingston, and is working in Toronto for the summer.

This is your invitation to attend a miscellaneous shower in honor of Margaret Bolender and Calvin Carrington on Thursday night, May 6, in the Fellowship Hall of the Missionary Church.

The Missionary Church is celebrating Neighbors' Sunday on May 2. The Howard Baker family of Orillia will be ministering musically at both services. A very special invitation is extended to every one in the community to attend.

Karen Lewis, daughter of Mrs. John Lewis, was baptized on Sunday morning at St. John's Anglican Church. Mrs. Jack Wright and Mrs. Lee Reid were godmothers. All were entertained at a luncheon following the service at the home of the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Consaul in Richmond Hill.

Quite a number of people were without hydro for sometime on Sunday night when hydro wires shorted on the third concession. The police routed all traffic until the lines were repaired.

Ferne Doner of Regina, Sask., is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Doner. Ferne is director of the Canadian National Institute of the Blind for the province of Sask.
