Word from Bethel

Not too much has been happening during this last week at Parkview, but soon the fall and winter program will be in full swing and the residents will be participating in the many and varied activities of the home.

Rev. William VanderBent, our resident pastor is away on vacation, and we are most grateful to Rev. I.P. Jeffrey for filling in for Rev. VanderBent.

Last Thursday evening Jake and Bernice Smith of Stouffville, showed some slides of Scandinavia to the residents.

We were pleased to have Rev. Howard Minaker, of the Bethel Church, with us on Sunday evening, and everyone appreciated the preaching of the word.

This week the Ontario Association of Homes for the Aged Annual Convention is being held at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto. Membership in this Association is held by the 187 homes for the aged in the province. Nine members of the Parkview staff are attending this convention.

Some of the visitors to the home this week include: Mr. and Mrs. E. Pilkington of Cambridge for Miss Millard; Grace and Erle Stotesbury of Southampton for Mrs. Stotesbury; Allan and Dorothy Jones of Woodville, for Mrs. M. Jones; Darlene and Howard La Rose of Ingersoll for Miss Bond; Clarence and Beth Masters of Waterloo for Mrs. F. Pugh; Mr. and Mrs. Thom of London for Mrs. Grubin; Walter and Alma Stickey for Mrs. C. Stickey; Alvin Winger and Ida Leary; and Ken Walker of Stayner for Miss Walker.

Honored by Province on Golden Wedding Anniversary gathering

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pascoe, longtime Greenwood residents, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday. Over 200 friends and relatives were on hand at the celebration, held in the Christian education centre of the United Church.

Friends, relatives gather for Pascoe anniversary

MILDRED McTAGGART Over two hundred friends and relatives came to the Greenwood church on Sunday afternoon and evening to join in bringing good wishes to Ed and Susie Pascoe on their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Greetings were received from Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau, Premier William Davis, and Norman Cafik, M.P. A piece of their original wedding cake, a family album, gifts and cards were shown. An address was read by Mary McLean and two upholstered swivel rockers were presented to them.

We are happy to learn that Percy Clarke returned home on Saturday after a lengthy stay in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Morden, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Morden and Mary Lou attended the wedding of Gordon Hooker and Diane Puckrin at Seagrave on Saturday.

Regardless of the poor weather a large crowd turned out for the Newman sale on Saturday. Prices were generally good, a nine piece toilet set sold for $190 and a captain's chair for $75.

Susan Belyea will be the judge and demonstrator at the Horticultural Society's Sept. show and meeting, to be held Sept. 20, 8 p.m., at United Church Hall.

Returned home
Friends will be pleased to learn that Mrs. H. R. Button, O'Brien Ave., has returned home following several weeks in Centenary Hospital. Morley Symes, Lloyd Ave., also a patient at Centenary, is expected home shortly.

96th birthday
A host of friends and relatives helped Elizabeth Williamson Parkview Home celebrate her 96th birthday on Thursday. Miss Williamson who does not enjoy the best of health was thrilled with a short motor trip during the day to visit with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ella Williamson, Church St. Markham. She received more than three dozen cards from well-wishers as well as a birthday cake. Miss Williamson is the last surviving member of the Williamson family coming from Peaches and Dickson's Hill area.

Christian handicapped
The Stouffville Christian Handicapped group will be meeting again Friday, September 17, 8 p.m., at the Stouffville Youth Centre on Gormley Road. Bob and Anne Whyte of Scarborough will be speaking and singing.

Co-op directors
Three new directors for the Stouffville Co-operative Association were elected last week. They are: Lloyd Grose, Jim Rae and Claude Kerr. Retiring as directors this year are Ray Atkinson, David Paisley and Ivan Deger. The new president is to be appointed at the first directors' meeting Sept. 27.

Reception
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilson of 81 Tindale Ave., Stouffville, wish to extend an invitation to relatives, friends and neighbours to attend an open house in honour of their 40th wedding anniversary, at their home, Sept. 18, from 2-4 p.m. and 7-9 p.m. Best wishes only.

Mother passes
The death occurred near Embro, Ontario, on Wednesday, Sept. 8, of Mrs. Norma C. Clarke, formerly of R. R. 4, Stouffville. Deceased who was in her 49th year, was the wife of Bruce A. Clarke. Mrs. Clarke was a daughter of Mrs. Ruth Eby of Stouffville and stepdaughter of Maurice Eby. Besides her husband, deceased is survived by three sons, Stephen of Conestoga and Jamie and Andrew at home, also six daughters, Miss Pauline of Dessie, Ethiopia, Mrs. Daniel Waroux, France, and Gloria, Suzanne, Heather and Christine at home. Funeral service was conducted at the Oxford Baptist Church, Woodstock, with interment in the Woodstock Baptist Cemetery on Saturday.

ACTS 17: 24-28
For ye shall receive the Holy Spirit when you and your wives are united in the Lord.

Helen K. Lewis, of Stouffville, and Jon M. Casselman, of Willowdale were wed at Ringwood Christian Church, in June, by Rev. Douglas Davis. The newlyweds are now residing in Stouffville.

HALIBURTON HIGHLANDS
Do you enjoy a quiet peaceful atmosphere amidst beautiful breathtaking scenery? Do you like to take walks down picturesque roads and trails and admire the show provided by Mother Nature in the fall? Whether it's for a day's outing or a few days to get away from it all, Haliburton is the place for you this fall.

Artists, camera buffs, and nature lovers are becoming more and more aware of this mecca only a few hours drive from home. If you'd rather leave your car at home there are a number of colour tours available through Travelways where all meals and accommodations are arranged for you.

Many establishments in the Haliburton area offer reduced rates during the week in the fall, and this is certainly of particular appeal to a great many senior citizens who may be on fixed incomes. Accommodations are available not only in many fine resorts where everything is provided, but also in cozy housekeeping cottages, where you look after yourself, and set your daily schedule to suit your own mood. For the more hardy, of course there is a myriad of spacious trailer parks, where the big advantage in the fall is the complete absence of mosquitoes and other bugs.

One of the reasons that Haliburton has managed to remain in this enviable state of quiet seclusion is its location. Haliburton is not on the way to anywhere. Algonquin Park forms the northern boundary of Haliburton and thus cuts off all through traffic. You don't pass through Haliburton, you simply arrive there, stay there and enjoy it. People who live there hate to ever leave it, people who holiday there crave to live there, and people who have never been there, owe it to themselves to experience it. There's just nowhere in Ontario left that is quite like it.

The Haliburton Highlands Chamber of Commerce operate an information centre year round in Haliburton and if you would like more information they invite you to phone or write them at Box 147, Minden, Ontario, 705-286-1760.
