Claremont news

Claremont minister installed

A service was held at 7:30 p.m. last Sunday in the United Church inducting the Rev. Edward V. Cook as minister of the Claremont Brougham Pastoral Charge. Mr. Stephen G. Saywell, Chairman of Oshawa Presbytery, officiated in the induction. The sermon was taken by the Rev. David A. Spivey of Newcastle United Church, and leading in worship was Mrs. Evelyn Redpath of Oshawa Kingsview United Church. Rosemary Timms was the soloist with Clarion Baker at the organ.

At 8 p.m. in the bowling green club house. Thereafter, there will be euchre every Tuesday night, with refreshments and prizes. Everyone is welcome. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Jenkinson of Cuffley, Herefordshire, England, have been spending part of the summer at the home of their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jenkinson. They are particularly enjoying the beautiful country surrounding Claremont. At present they are revisiting with their other brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Art Jenkinson at Scarborough, before returning home to England.

Saturday afternoon, Sept. 11, Claremont Legion and Legion Ladies Auxiliary had as their guests 46 veterans from Sunnybrook Hospital for their annual visit. They were welcomed by Legion President, Ralph Norton, 1st Vice-President, Harold Hopkins, and Auxiliary President, Jean Bradshaw. They were entertained with song and dance numbers by the Branch and Auxiliary and with music supplied by Charlie Day and Carl Devitt. A blind chap, Stan McBeth, who accompanies the vets, delighted everyone with his accordion and piano playing.

The ham and turkey dinner, complete with all the trimmings, were out of this world, and even the 93-year-olds vowed they would be back next year. These are veterans from the 1st and 2nd World Wars, and it is with great satisfaction that the family of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Redshaw held their annual picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Redshaw of Goodwood. This year Mr. and Mrs. Ross Redshaw hosted the party. Everyone of the family attended; father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Redshaw; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Redshaw with Shane and Lisa; Mr. and Mrs. Steve Wideman with John, Brad and Ed; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Redshaw with Greg, Lance, Chard and Jennifer, and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Redshaw with the newest addition to the family, young Zachery. Her many friends in Claremont wish her all the best of everything in her new life.

Quite a number of Oshawa Presbytery guests were present along with members of Claremont Baptist Church. Refreshments were served for a social hour following the service. We welcome the new pastor and Mrs. Cook and extend our very good wishes that they will have many happy days among us.
