

Brougham was the site of an RCMP wedding Saturday as Constable John Duane Walsh of St. John's, Newfoundland and Mary Ann Whittington of Oshawa were united in matrimony at the church there. The former Miss Whittington is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Whittington, formerly of Brougham.

Anniversary services to be held

By Mildred McTaggart
Anniversary services at Mount Zion will be held next Sunday, Sept. 26, at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Rev. John Hill will preach at the morning service, which will include Holy Communion. Mr. John VanGulick B.A. Th., will preach at the evening service and the Mount Zion Choir will lead in the music with Wm. Brown soloist in the evening.

Sunday, Oct. 17, was chosen for the annual beef dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. C.E. Pegg were at the Cruikshank cottage at Coehill with the Cruikshank family and friends on Sunday.

Congratulations to Don McLean who received his 50 year pin at the Past Masters meeting of The Imperial Masonic Lodge, Toronto last week. The Brougham Union Lodge were guests for the evening and Mr. McLean was the chairman of the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Goodwin were with their square dance group at the Red Umbrella Inn, north of Minden on the weekend.

Pony rides, pottery, white elephants, plants and home baking were for sale at the Greenwood Festival last Saturday and along with races for the children, music by Nelson Cole, and the dunking machine all added to the afternoon's entertainment and made the day quite a success. The Community Centre was filled to capacity at night when Pat Riccio provided music for the dance.

Even the TV cameras made it to the Greenwood Festival Saturday, a carnival and crafts display event. Here Doug Gahn of Bay Ridges Cable TV (with mike) talks to Kathy Quinn about her flowers as cameraman Rob Mooy records the conversation. The boy is Mrs. Quinn's son George.

Stouffville plowmen leave their mark at first match

SCUGOG ISLAND — Local plowmen were much in evidence at the first annual Durham Regional Plowmen and Mara Plowmen's Association held here September 13. Fred Timbers of Stouffville acted as a judge at the event, which replaces separate matches that had been sponsored in former years by the North and South Ontario County Plowmen's Association.

Among the Tractors, Opening Split, Two or more Furrows, Mounted Ploughs, Classes, local winners were — age 12-14 class: Ken Wells of Stouffville, first; Kevin Grose of Mount Albert, second. Ages 15-17: Lorne Britton of Claremont, first; Kevin Wells of Stouffville, third; Eric Timbers of Stouffville, fourth. Ages 18-23: Bob Richards of Stouffville, first. Open class: Ellis Britton, Claremont, second; and Ken Ferguson, Stouffville, third.

Ivan Degeer of Mount Albert was second in the Tractor in Sod, Open split, Mounted or Trailer, Open class, while Carl Timbers of Stouffville placed third.

The Utility, Mounted Plows Only, Opening Split, 20 years and under category saw Lorne Britton of Claremont grab second, Kevin Wells of Stouffville fourth and Bob Richards of Stouffville fifth.

In the Tractors in Stubble, Utility, Mounted, Semi-Mounted or Trailer, opening split, class, Stouffville's Ken Ferguson was second and Carl Timbers was fourth. Claremont's Lorne Britton was also winner of seven special awards at the match, and Kevin Grose picked up one.
