Farmer Jacks midget all-star girls in Lakeshore Ladies League finals

By Barb Cooper
STOUFFVILLE — The Farmer Jacks midget all-star girls scored a decisive win over East Gwillimbury in the Lakeshore Ladies League finals, with a score of 27-13.

In the first inning, Sue Ansell, Sylvia Lyckloma and Karen Keffer scored for East Gwillimbury, but then the Jacks came back with Sandy Ramer, Cheryl Singleton, Debbie Coxworth and Barb Goudie all belting out doubles.

To top it all off Lizette Lacoursiere scored a homer with bases loaded and the Farmers took an easy 15-3 lead.

Jackie Pryer managed to get home in the second inning, but excellent infelding by the Jacks prevented any further runs by E. Gwillimbury. However the Farmers proceeded to tally three more runs, making the score 18-4.

In the third inning

Cathy Kealy dazzled the spectators with her base running as she stole from first to home plate. Cheryl Singleton and Heather Dunkeld then hit doubles to make the score 22-4.

Barb Goudie doubled in the fourth inning and Cathy singled to bring her home. Cathy then proceeded to steal second and third base and made it home on Nancy Dart's single. Maureen Kamps doubled to bring in Nancy, and the inning ended 25-4.

In the sixth inning

East Gwillimbury rallied the Farmers, who also and came up with nine scored two more and the runs, but couldn't beat game ended 27-13.

Bell girls win

By Barb Cooper
STOUFFVILLE — Bell Canada all-star girls won two out of three in a playoff game against Whitby.

They were beaten in the first game 18-9, then came back and won the next two 11-6 and 11-4.

Star of the second game was pitcher Darlene Wagg who struck out 20 Whitby batters in the course of the game.

The final and decisive game was played in Stouffville. Jannette Cooper scored the first run when she singled and stole second and was brought in by Darlene Wagg's double. Cathy Allin put Whitby on the scoreboard by doubling and then stealing home in the second inning.

A flurry of base hits by the Farmers were the story in the third inning. Jannette Cooper singled and stole second, Sue Beelby doubled, Darle Wagg singled and went to second, on errors, Karen Brodie hit a double, and Esther Herbert singled.

When the dust settled the Bell's had taken a 5-1 lead.

STOUFFVILLE — Girls hockey is now in full swing and an interesting season lies ahead. For the first time the teams have been divided into junior and senior divisions, which should make for more hard-hitting action among the older girls.

she was assisted by Bev Gordon. Julie Parish then soloed for the Tractors.

Cheryl Singleton was fouled on several rushes by Debbie Cooper. Julie Nigh did a terrific job on defence.

L&M Gardens and the Stouffville Sales Barns played to a 1-1 stalemate. Sandy Ramer scored unassisted for L&M, and Kathy Summerfeldt scored for the Barns, assisted by Sue Hassard and Diane Ermen. Goalies Lizette Lacoursiere and Diane Houston were superb, stopping breakaways and rushes by the opposing teams.

Junior Division
Credit Union blanked the Stouffville Lions 8-0. Jolyn Ayotte was the hotshot — she scored three goals in two and a half minutes of play, and ended the game with five goals to her credit. Gloria Mintz tallied one goal, two assists, Beth Houser, one goal, one assist, and Bonnie Hollingsworth, one goal. Other assists went to Sharon Jessup, Karne Berry, and Wendy Beaton. Kathy Gordon was the shut-out goalie.

Vicki MacDonald scored a hat-trick plus an assist to lead the Gormley Garden Centre to victory over the Stouffville Kinsmen. Sheryl Brown knocked in the other goal, making the score 4-2. Assists went to Teresa Ewing, Susan Jones, Linda Roberts and Brenda Steel on the Garden Centre side, while Lisa Henderson, (2) Paige Cowan and Karen Brodie assisted Janet Dunkeld to score two goals for the Kinsmen.

Senior Division
Stouffville IGA dumped Stacey Tractor Parts 4-2. Cheryl Singleton and Heather Dunkeld tallied one goal and one assist each. Terry Pilkey and Debbie Coxworth scored the other goals. Cathy Kealy scored for Tractor Parts;
