Anniversary service held at St. John's

By ANNE LONEY
A former resident of Claremont, Lillie May Roy, passed away in McMaster Medical Centre on Sunday, Oct. 17, 1976 in her 85th year. She was the wife of Irvine Dopking, station agent in Claremont, who died 32 years ago, but is still remembered by people in the village.

Mrs. Dopking made her home with her son, Carl, in Dundas before entering Blackadar Nursing Home. Also surviving with Carl are son Kenneth of Agincourt and daughter, Margaret Ware of Burlington, a brother and several sisters, five grand children and three great grand children. Three brothers and a sister predeceased her.

Mrs. Dopking's minister the Rev. Jack Spencery of Dundas officiated at the funeral service in Mariatt Dundas Chapel on Wednesday at 10 a.m., thence to Claremont United Church where Mr. Spencery held a short service at 2:30 p.m. Interment was in Claremont Union

Greenwood centre busy crafts place

By MILDRED McTAGGART

The Community Centre is a busy place these days with rug hooking, macramé, and weaving being taught. A new course in oil painting will begin in November. The instructor will be Kay Parker, a graduate of the Ontario College of Art. Mrs. Parker was a founder of the Willowdale Group of Artists, and has studied under the Group of Seven. Anyone wishing to join this group is asked to contact Milton Pegg.

Beatrice McLean attended a weekend retreat at Cedar Glen, a United Church Camp near Bolton. Mrs. Don Beach accompanied her husband on a business trip to Quebec last week. Members of the U.C.W. were pleased to have Michael Brooks and Rick Bleasdale who attended the World Scout Jamboree in Norway last year show their slides at the general meeting on Thursday night. They were enjoyed by everyone.

A picturesque wedding was held on Oct. 2nd at 4 p.m. in the Greenwood United Church, when Brenda Marie Middleton became the bride of Earl Joseph Swedlo. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Middleton of Greenwood, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Swedlo, Newmarket.

The Double Ring ceremony was performed by Rev. John Hill and John Van Gulick. Wedding music was played by Mrs. C. McTaggart. The church was decorated with yellow mums.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a long white gown of 'peau de soie' which she made herself. She carried a cascade of yellow roses and white carnations. The maid of honour was Isabel Peat, the bridesmaids, Christine Lusk, Janet Swedlo and Lisa McTaggart.

They wore floor length gowns in blue and carried bouquets of yellow daisies.

The best man was Gary Hoult, and the ushers were Alan Middleton, Howard Middleton and Richard Swedlo. Out-of-town guests were the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Skrabek of Manitoba and his brother, Stephen Swedlo from Alberta. After the ceremony the wedding party went for a ride up to the Claremont Conservation area on a tractor drawn hay wagon suitably decorated with flowers and a 'Just Married' sign. The reception was held in the Christian Education Room of the church. The wedding cake was a gift from Earl's aunt, Nellie Swedlo. Following the reception a dance was held in the Greenwood Community Centre.

Cemetery; Mrs. Dopking is buried beside her husband.

At the anniversary service in St. John's United Church last Sunday, joined by Claremont congregation, Alice Hamm of Stouffville, played the cornet and Bonnie McGregor of Brougham sang and played her guitar. Clarion Baker was at the organ. Two Claremont United Church ministers, the Rev. Eldon Linstead and Mrs. Linstead, now of Port Perry and the Rev. Arthur Cresswell and Mrs. Cresswell of Oshawa were welcomed by their former parishioners of both churches. Refreshments were served by Brougham Church ladies after the service.

A great big bouquet to seven year old Scot Spencer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Derek Spencer, who proved that there is some honesty still in these days of violence and greed. Scot picked up a five dollar bill outside of Lake's Corner Store and took it in and gave it to Mrs. Lake. The man who lost the money was found and it was returned. Thanks Scot; for although outside we see nothing but a gloomy rainy day, your wonderful little deed puts sunshine in our hearts.

A joint Barbecue-Turkey Dinner was hosted by sponsors Steve Wideman and George McKenzie at the Wideman home Saturday evening in honor of their ball teams, the pee wees and bantams. Their parents also were invited guests and nearly 50 attended. Assisting Mrs. Wideman were Mrs. McKenzie and Bev Wilson who have done so much for the teams. The 'pee wees' are the proud winners of the O.A.S.A. C Division.
