

Before the parade and wreath laying ceremony Sunday, a group of veterans went up to the Stouffville Cemetery and laid poppies on the graves of war veterans. Fred Castle is a veteran who was captured at the battle of Dieppe. There was a good turnout for the parade which featured local cubs, scouts and the Uxbridge Legion Pipe Band.

Missionary to speak at Churchill church

CHURCHILL — The Jack Bart missionary family from South America will be featured at Churchill Baptist Church during a Missionary Conference Nov. 21-23.

The Barts will appear in South American costumes at the opening Sunday School session, 9:50 a.m. on Nov. 21, with Mr. Bart preaching afterwards at 11 a.m. Cordy and Claudia Chuang will provide special music. Mr. Bart will also speak at 7:20 p.m.

On Nov. 23, Marg Bart will be at the Ladies Coffee Hour, at 9:45 a.m., while in the evening the family will give a slide presentation at 7:30 p.m. John and Doris Thompson will present special music.

On "Family Night", 7:30 p.m. on Nov. 24, family life in South America with the Barts will be portrayed.

The Pioneer Girls Program Nov. 25 at 3 p.m. will feature Marg Bart and daughters, and Nov. 26 at 7:30 p.m. a special meeting conducted by the church young people will be presented.

A Men's Fellowship Breakfast with Jack Bart will take place Nov. 27, 8 a.m., and the week will round out Nov. 28 with the

Gladys Bunker

Area resident passes at 76

STOUFFVILLE — Gladys Bunker, a lifelong Stouffville area resident, passed away Oct. 27 in York County Hospital, Newmarket. She was in her 77th year.

Her husband, Clarke, had passed away less than a month earlier.

Mrs. Bunker, the former Gladys Madill, was born in Markham Township, the youngest of eight children born to the late Sarah and Theophilus Madill. She attended Locust Hill School and Green River Baptist Sunday School and Church in her younger years.

She had lived on 10th line South in Mongolia for 50 years prior to moving to Stouffville two years ago.

According to friends,

Mrs. Bunker was a very kind, hospitable person, always willing to help others. She took great pride in her home and family and enjoyed her many friends and neighbors.

She is survived by two daughters, Dorothy (Mrs. George Wilson) of R. R. 1, Woodville, and Shirley (Mrs. Ross Anderson) of Agincourt; and five grandchildren: Jerry and Valerie Wilson, and Dawn, Sandra and Tammy Anderson.

Rev. Don Pugh conducted the funeral service from O'Neill Funeral Home on Friday, Oct. 29, with interment in Stouffville Cemetery. The pallbearers were Clarence Bunker, Harvey Bunker, Mervyn Bunker, Harold Bunker, Don Bunker and John Moore.

Parkview residents go on a short bus trip

As we are beginning to see the first tinges of winter, we are finding that some of the Residents are rather reticent to venture much further than the front doors of the Home, but last Wednesday, Miss Grace Ramer, our Adjutant, organized a bus trip up and around the Musselman's Lake area, and we are glad to report about 19 of the Residents took the opportunity and enjoyed an hour out.

Last Thursday, we were very pleased to have Mrs. Doris Williams and her family with us to participate in the variety program. The Williams family are members of the Altona Missionary Church, and Mrs. Williams is the niece of one of our Residents, Mrs. Hills.

Mr. Shantz came on Friday to the Home, and showed a beautiful film on wild life.

Rev. Tom Hamilton of Springvale Baptist Church was our speaker at the Sunday evening service. Mrs. Mary Hutchinson, accompanied by Mrs. Doris Ratcliff, ministered in song.

Once again may we say how much we appreciate the help of the local church and community groups in the various services and activities of the Home.

Over 550 attend turkey supper at United Church

By MRS. W. SANDLE

Over 550 people enjoyed the turkey supper sponsored by the Victoria Square United Church which was held in the Community Hall on Wednesday evening of last week.

Another euchre party will be held in the Community Hall on Friday evening, Nov. 12 at 8 p.m. Everyone welcome.

Misses Wendy Hart and Jean Hamill entertained relatives on Sunday afternoon at Wendy's home. The occasion being a miscellaneous shower for their cousin Miss Karen Wheler and Mr. Terry Tapscott who are being married Nov. 20.

The extended Explorer group for girls 5-13 years will meet every Thursday evening at 7 p.m. in the Sunday School room. The leaders are Wendy Hart, Mrs. Neil Morton and Mrs. Vern Mikkelsen. All girls are welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Nichols spent Sunday with their cousin Mrs. Bea Alder at London. They also called on their cousin Mrs. Dora Steed who is in hospital there.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCague have returned after spending the past week in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Stephenson and son of Alliston were visitors at the church service on Sunday morning, later spending the day with Lawrence's mother, Mrs. Ida Stephenson.

Birthdays greetings to Michael Hamilton, two years, Nov. 10; Douglas Williams, Nov. 11; Andrea Morton, seven years, Nov. 11; Mrs. V. Mikkelsen, Nov. 11; Mrs. Katrina Kudla, Nov. 16.

The church began, as the Bloomington Christian Church, with services held in a barn at Ringwood.

Then, the first church building was dedicated in 1833, situated in the present location of the cemetery in Bloomington, 1892, the present church building was erected, directly across the road, with one of the members, Elijah Johnson, financing the project.

The church united, in 1956, with the Associated Gospel Churches of Canada, and retained the title "Christian" in their name.

Rev. C. W. Sorely is the present pastor.

Hammersley's: The Country Furniture Store that's still out in the country.

Hammersley's is an exciting store that sells just about everything you'd want to put inside a newly-renovated 150-year old Ontario stone farmhouse.

About the one thing we don't have is a chic inner-city address. Yet being in the country has some decided advantages for people shopping for things with either an Ontario Heritage feeling or a genuine Ontario Heritage history.

In the country, we're a lot closer to the places that actually make our hand-crafted early Ontario and Quebec pine furniture replicas.

We're closer to the sources of our genuine antiques — the farm auctions and the local dealers.

We're closer to the potters and weavers whose work we can show you, and to the local craftsmen who can repair, restore and renovate everything from a set of antique bellows to a barn.

All in all, we're one authentic source of knick-knacks and know-how for everything you need to achieve the Country Heritage interior design look.

Why not come see us, to browse, buy, or just talk country design — there's a chair by the fireplace for you at Hammersley's.

We're in the Uxbridge hills, just outside of Mount Albert. In the country.

Just 2 1/2 miles east of Highway 48 on the Mount Albert Side Road (York Rd. 13). (416) 473-2209

55 at church party

A Halloween Party for all children who ride the bus to the Churchill Baptist Church Sunday School was held Oct. 29 for 55 youngsters. It was sponsored by the church's bus captain, Vic Woodhouse, and his wife Rebecca.

Costume winner was Doug Kelly as "Tospy" with Ken Clarke and Lydia Coultice, runners up as "Beautiful Lady" and "Rooster" respectively.

After appropriate games, Lucella Holt gave a story about a pumpkin which reflected the facial expressions of the child who cut it out.

Afterward, a lunch of pumpkin pie and "Jack-o-
