Old-time social marks 100th anniversary

By MILDRED McTAGGART GREENWOOD — On Nov. 8 in the church Sunday School rooms, long dresses and coal oil lights were the setting for the old-time pot-luck supper commemorating the 100th Anniversary of the Greenwood Sabbath School Social on Nov. 8th, 1976. Over 60 parents and children were there for the occasion. After the supper the children enjoyed a few games led by Mrs. Nancy Hoar and then entertained us with musical numbers and action songs led by Mrs. Susan Bendle and Mrs. Pat Beach. A reading by Mrs. Elva Henning, a bit of history by Mrs. M. N. Pegg and a sing song led by Mrs. Marjorie Morden and Mrs. Betty Pegg completed the short program.
