BEAUTIFUL SELECTION!

Betty Groff, the young proprietor of the newly opened Kiddie-Kloset says her best advertisement is the bowling alley because all the women in the ladies leagues have to go past her store. She carries a medium priced line of children's wear from infant to pre-teen, and stated that there is a need for that kind of a store in the area. The fact that business has been good seems to bear this out.

Walt Barnes succumbs

STOUFFVILLE — Walter Murray Barnes, a retired farmer, died quietly at his home in his 77th year. Mr. Barnes had farmed on the north-west corner of Bloomington Sideroad and the Ninth Concession for fifty years before retiring to Stouffville. He is survived by his wife, Anne, and son, Robert Murray, as well as grandchildren Brenda Anne, Timothy Robert, and John William. Mr. Barnes enjoyed gardening and was a member of the Stouffville United Church. Funeral services were held at the O'Neill Funeral Home by Rev. Sorley, and interment was at the Stouffville Cemetery. Mr. Barnes was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Everett Barnes.

Crochet course in Oak Ridges

By PAULINE KING
Several ladies are taking a six week crochet course, which is held at Jeans Children's Wear, in the Oak Ridges Plaza on Mondays at 7:30 — 9 pm. Another 6 week course will begin in January. If interested call Jean at 773-4468.

Beginning Saturday November 27, a Marañatha Coffee House will be held at St. Paul's Church. This will be held every other Saturday at 7:30 pm. Admission is free included in the program will be coffee, movies, live musical groups and a message of Salvation. This Saturday the music will be provided by the group "Expressions of Joy". You will find the people friendly.

On Wednesday evening November 17th, the Oak Ridges York Central Hospital Auxiliary group visited the Wheelhouse Club. They were making Christmas stockings for patients in the Hospital. A buffet lunch was provided. It was a very enjoyable evening for all who attended.

Church had a very successful sale last week. A number of ladies in the community are meeting every Wednesday from 9:30 am. to 11:15 am. For Bible Study and Fellowship. Anyone interested may call 773-4347 or 773-4680.

Drive a Renault 5.
See why the experts are singing its praises.

Love at first drive.
The RS is... one of those uniquely well-balanced cars that come along from time to time. For an enthusiast it can be love at the first drive around the block.
Motor Trend

It was amazingly agile on icy surfaces and seemed perfectly content to make minor directional changes in complete safety.
Wheelerpin News

Kind to the backside.
The 5's seats are probably the best among the small cars.
Road & Track

...the vinyl seats, filled with an incredibly soft material, provided exceptional lateral support, making long sprints in the car especially kind to the backside.
Wheelerpin News

Built like a tank.
It gets really good fuel mileage and seems built like a tank.
Road Test

Stability at speed was another GTL attribute and I drove it hands off at 70 mph to confirm the point. Crosswinds had little effect.
Canadian Motorist

Will swallow a six-foot step-ladder.
One advantage it has over all the other mini-hatchback designs is a really big back. The 5 is the only one, in fact, that opens right down to the load-floor level.
Car & Driver

A new standard for small cars.
The Renault 5 can be covered ferociously on good surfaces of road without breaking loose.
Motor Trend

The Renault 5 is by far the most sophisticated and comfortable of these cars and the most fun to drive.
(Compared to Datsun B-210 and Chevrolet Rallye)
Motor Trend

The RS will swallow a six-foot step-ladder.
Car & Driver

When the rear seat was folded down, cargo space was truly gargantuan.
