

Benign and not so benign monsters strolled down Main Street during the Santa Claus parade, and all were highly enjoyed by the crowd. The cookie-monster on the right was a prize winning float entered by Ballantrae P. S. Below is the float judged best overall, it was prepared by Cathy Joice and her committee.

Ballantrae ladies to sponsor dinner

The Annual Christmas dinner sponsored by the Ballantrae Centennial Centre Ladies Auxilliary will include a Christmas concert featuring the children of the area and the Sweet Adelines from Aurora. This year's dinner to be held on Friday, Dec. 3, at 5:30 p.m. will be at the Vardorf Hall instead of their own Ballantrae Center which is under construction. All senior citizens in the area, or who previously lived in the area, are welcome and should call 640-1932 or 640-3738 if they are planning to attend. Transportation will be provided to those wishing it. The ladies auxiliary will of course be providing a home cooked meal and making every effort to make their annual Christmas dinner an enjoyable one for the senior citizens.

Movie about Sam the Safety Duck shown at school

By PAULINE KING
Correspondent

Thursday, Nov. 25 at the Oak Ridges Public School, the Safety Film "Sam the Safety Duck", a movie originally filmed in Oak Ridges, was shown. A number of parents also attended the showing.

Oak Ridges for many years had an active guide company, but in recent years had to drop the program due to the lack of leaders. We are now looking for leaders with or without experience, as training is provided to bring past leaders up to date on guiding skills.

If there are any girls who are interested in becoming guides or brownies they may call Mrs. J. E. Johnson at 727-3036, during the daytime.

Oak Ridges Scouts Ladies Auxiliary new executive are as follows: President — Doris McAdam, Vice President, Gwen Hansen, Treasurer, Johanna Vehle, Secretary, Dianne Brewster, Phoning, Rosa Koeck and Eileen Barker.
