Parkview news

Some residents down with 'flu' games and activities proceed

It seems that the flu bug has hit a lot of people in Stouffville this year, and only a few of the residents in the home have managed to escape. Unfortunately our art class teacher, Peter Koopman went down with it last weekend and had to cancel Monday evening art class for this week.

Rev. Martin and Rev. VanderBent faithfully conducted the Bible Study on Monday and the inspirational meeting on Tuesday evening.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Ricker, Activities Director, supervised an afternoon of games for those residents who were able to participate. The result was that all of them enjoyed it so much they wanted an afternoon like this each week.

We are very grateful to Jean Hammond and Mary Grant for providing the variety program on Thursday evening, and to Mahlon Shantz for the four films he showed on Canadian winters.

Sunday evening's service was very interesting as Rev. Ted Green of the Stouffville Presbyterian Church ministered in song and gave a stimulating word from the scriptures. One of the songs Rev. Green sang entitled "Twelve" was his own composition.

Next Monday Feb. 14, the Mennonite Home Association of York County will be holding their Annual Meeting in the auditorium at 7 p.m. This is open to members of all the churches and community who are interested in the senior citizens of Stouffville and district. The speaker for the evening will be Sister St. Michael (Winnifred) Guinon. Her theme for the evening is "Religion and Gerontology". See separate advertisement in forthcoming Events, for details.

Visitors to the home this week include: Kathleen Brown of Mattawa, who was in to visit with Mrs. M. Jones; Rev. Erle Stobesbury of Southampton, visited with his mother, Lottie Stobesbury; Mr. and Mrs. Don Smith of Simcoe visited E. Good; and Henry and Eva Probert of Fenelon Falls visited Asa Byers.

Funeral for former Ringwood resident

RINGWOOD — Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson, 18 Harding Gate, Stouffville opened their home for a social evening in recognition of the 96th anniversary of Christian Endeavour.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fockler and Mrs. William Hicks of Sutton on Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. Hicks operated the general store in Ringwood for several years.

Gary Fockler enjoyed a weekend retreat at Bolton with a young people's group from Toronto.

Good Citizenship deserves a medal

Do you know anyone here in Ontario who — through selflessness, humanity and kindness without expecting anything in return — has made this a better province in which to live?

That's the kind of person for whom the Ontario Medal for Good Citizenship was established.

Recipients are selected by an independent Advisory Council of Ontario citizens whose honorary chairman is the Lieutenant-Governor of the Province.

Anyone may nominate a person for the Ontario Medal, and nomination forms are available by writing:

Executive Secretary
 Ontario Medal for Good Citizenship
 Queen's Park
 Toronto, Ontario M7A 1A1

Making a nomination is itself an act of appreciation for good citizenship. All nominations should be received by April 15, 1977.
