From $277 Complete holiday arrangements including air fares London-Greece-London

The birthplace of civilization, Greece combines the fascination of the ancient world with 20th century excitement and night-life. Athens is built upon one of the most beautiful plains in the world, surrounded by mountains which open up to the sea. First inhabited in 3,500 B.C., the ancient town grew up around the sacred rock of the Acropolis which has remained the centre of its life ever since. Explore the city, marvel at her many monuments, and discover fabulous entertainment and excellent shops. There are Enterprise Holidays available in both Athens and Kavouri, a beach resort on the sun-drenched Apollo coast. Because it is only 35 minutes from Athens, it virtually offers two vacations for the price of one. The Plaza in Athens is a centrally located, modern, comfortable hotel. The Hotel Kavouri stands across the road from a sandy beach. Or you can enjoy the hotel's own swimming pool.
