Stouffville Socially

By Elizabeth Heriot 640-4378

Win or lose, Stouffville Kinsmen have officially accepted the volunteer firemen's challenge to compete against them in the Centennial Bed Race at the Country Fair to be held May 28.

Pioneers entertain
All dressed up like little girls do the Stouffville Pioneer group attended the Missionary Church last Sunday evening to delight the members of the congregation with voices singing the hymns Praise to the Lord and Shalom.

children under 12 will be admitted at half price. The Master's Touch Trio has been together for the past four years. Members are Linda Glendenning, a former long time Stouffville resident living in Markham, Ron Robbins, a teacher at Orchard Park Public School, Gormley carpenter Bruce Steckley and Lorrie Hadden a North York school principal. For further information call Alma Timbers at 640-2155, Darlene Wagg at 852-7152.

Everyone welcome
Attend a youth meeting Easter Sunday, April 10, at 9:15 p.m. in the Missionary Church on Main St. and you will be delighted to hear the gospel group the Singing Canadians.

Learn to spin
It is not too late to learn to spin. Classes in the art began at the Whitechurch Stouffville Museum on Tues. April 5, but Mrs. Mario Starr, the instructor, welcomes anyone interested to the 10 a.m. class.

Happy birthday
A belated birthday wish goes out to Donna Conner, who celebrated another one of her 20th plus birthdays Monday.

6 a.m. sunrise service at conservation area

By Mildred McTaggart

Special Services will mark the Easter week with a Holy Communion service on Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Greenwood Church, a Sunrise service at the Claremont Conservation 6 a.m. Easter Sunday and the regular Easter Service at 11 a.m. in the Mount Zion Church.

The senior citizens were pleased to have Lloyd Wilson of Uxbridge as guest speaker at their meeting in Whitevale last Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Pat Beach, Mrs. Elmer Pittman, Lorraine Nicholson, Mrs. Herb Middleton and Mrs. Ed Pascoe attended the Oshawa Presbyterian at Simcoe Street United Church last Wednesday.

A number from Greenwood enjoyed the concert presented by the Melodante Singers and the Pickering United Church Choir at the Pickering High School last Wednesday night.

Six of the Venturers under the leadership of Ron Hoar attended the Shooterama at Camp Samac for the Lakeland Region on the weekend. Robbie Carson placed second in the Singles Junior competition and Steven Hoar was third in the Singles Senior competition. Congratulations!

Lorna Wagg (left) and Aurella Smith were kept busy Friday morning handling out 600 dozen daffodils to local volunteers who are selling them to raise money for the Canadian Cancer Society. Fund-raising will continue all through the month of April as it is cancer month. Daffodils are selling for one dollar a bunch.

What's going on

Music Mania
Music Mania 77, the annual stage production sponsored by the Stouffville United Church Couples Club and featuring a cast of thousands (almost) is planned for April 28, 29 and 30 in the high school auditorium. Tickets are now on sale at Card's Hardware and cost $2.50 for adult reserved seats, $2 for regular seats and for the Thursday show only admission for senior citizens and children will be $1. Show time is 8:30 p.m. and all proceeds will go to the Stouffville centennial project, the new library.

Nearly new sale
Bargain hunters can beat the high cost of outfitting their families by shopping at the Spring Nearly New Sale sponsored by the Markham Clothing Centre. Toys, baked goods and "white elephant" items are also available. The sale will be held Friday, April 22 at 1 p.m. in St. Andrew's United Church, Markham.

Fun fair
The Summitview Fun Fair will be held Saturday, June 11. More details later.

Merry Men of Markham
The Markham barbershop singers are having their 100 per cent night on Tuesday April 12 at 8 p.m. at the Markham banquet hall located upstairs in the arena. All past members are invited and all interested parties are welcome. The price of admission is just right - it's free.

School reunion
The 60th anniversary of Gledhill Public School with an open house May 14, is at the school in Toronto.

The open house begins at 1:30 p.m. and there will be an official ceremony at 2:45 p.m. There will be refreshments and a display of memorabilia. For further information call 422-3450.

New food guide
The Canada Food Guide has been revised and copies of the new edition are now available from the local health unit or provincial health departments.

Funding for retarded
The new Canada Works Program has approved a $29,910 grant to the York Central Association for the Mentally Retarded. MP Barney Danson announced last week. The program will stress recreation and education for better use of the individual's leisure time.

Local craft fair
The seventh annual Craft Fair will be held Saturday, April 16, from 11 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at St. Andrew's United Church, Main St., Markham. There will be between 20 and 30 exhibits and demonstrations by local crafters. Proceeds go to Participation House, the Markham home for cerebral palsy sufferers. The event is sponsored by Beta Sigma Phi and admission, which includes refreshments, costs $1 for adults and 25c for children. Babysitting is available. Craft items will be for sale.
