Naturalist club to hold first meeting

By ANNE LONEY

The first meeting of the Pickering Naturalists Club will be held in the Pickering Municipal Building, on the Brock Road at Highway 2, Tuesday, April 19, at 8 p.m. Speakers will include Betty Pegg (Mrs. Edgerton Fegg) who will show some of her fine colored slides of birds and flowers, and Mike Singleton (of the Federation of Ontario Naturalists).

David Bass, head of outdoor recreation in the Pickering area had many suggestions from those who would like to share their experiences and discoveries and express their concerns with a united voice. Dr. J. Murray Spiers will call the meeting and will advertise to invite the public. The program will include election of officers and the discussion of a program if it is wanted. There are many interests, other than birds and flowers, in which residents of Pickering region are concerned. A good turnout will be more than welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Ford and daughters, Cathy, Sharon and Samantha, have returned home from a three-week holiday in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jones welcomed their family to Easter Sunday dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Ken McTaggart with Lisa, Michael and Tammy of Greenwood, son Allan from Toronto, and Mrs. Glen Jones of Scarborough.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Hopkins and Jodi and Jefferey of Agincourt were Easter Sunday guests at the home of Terry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hopkins.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Benson were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Benson and Dennis of Beaverton and Mrs. Jim Hopkins, Dawne and David of Cannington who spent Easter Sunday with them.

Susan Murray and friend, Robert Vandewater, both from Queen's University and son, Stephen, of the Royal Military College, in Kingston, spent Easter Holiday at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Murray.

Two new wells for Greenwood

By MILDRED McTAGGART

Easter Services on the weekend at Greenwood and Mount Zion were well attended. The children's Choir, under the leadership of Mrs. Grant Carson led in the music and sang two anthems at the 11 o'clock service at Mount Zion.

Mr. and Mrs. Don McLean, Mississauga and Mr. and Mrs. Jack McLean and family of Scarborough were home for Easter with Mr. and Mrs. Don McLean.

Mr. and Mrs. Berton Wilson, Barrie had dinner Sunday night with Mrs. Mildred McTaggart.

Two new wells have been drilled recently on the hill, one for Nelson Cole at one hundred and twenty feet and the other at the Manse, at two hundred and five feet approximately. A good supply of water was found at both locations. A group of willing workers showed up at the Manse on Saturday morning and dug the trench for pipe to the house. An auction sale will be held on May 28th to help pay expenses for the well at the Manse. Donations will be gratefully received.

At a meeting of the Pickering Historical Society on Wednesday night, April 6th in the Brougham Church Officers for the year were appointed. Mrs. Gwen Mowbray showed two interesting films, "Don't Knock the Ox" and another on Upper Canada Village.

If you wonder what to do with your old purple chair, Locust Hill, 683-5828. The one back in the corner behind the red chesterfield there. And the grey set of dishes back in the cupboard afar, in the cupboard. And the junk in the

Their son, Colin, returned home on April 4 from Victoria, B.C. where he was with the Cadet Corps from Pickering High, and took part in the Dominion of Canada Rifle Championship which came in second. Last month the Cadet Corps won first place in the Ontario Championship held at Fort York in Toronto.

Mrs. Robert Redshaw was honored on her 90th birthday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Talbert Evans and family, last Sunday, April 10, at Port Perry. Along with Mrs. Evans were her immediate family Mr. and Mrs. Charles Redshaw and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ross, Redshaw and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lehman and family. Mrs. Redshaw is the grandmother of 11 grandchildren, 17 great grandchildren and two step grandchildren, who were all in attendance. She is agile, spry, loves company, is a baseball and hockey fan, and likes to get to as many games as she can.

Ball Registrations will be held in the Community Hall between the hours from 10 to 12 April, Saturday 16, and Saturday, April 23, for both All Stars and House League teams. No late registrations.

There will be Communion Services in both Clarendon and Brougham United Church on Sunday, April 17.

The Women's Institute will have a Pot Lunch on Wednesday, April 20, at 13.30 p.m. in the Community Hall.

Friday, April 8, 22 friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Timms for a Turkey Dinner to honor the birthday of Roy and his twin brother, Robert, who lives in Weston.

We are sorry to hear that two well-known friends are ill. Earl Anderson is in Centenary Hospital and Jim Petty, a long time former resident of Clarendon is in Oshawa General.

Winners at the Bowling Green euchre last Tuesday were Ladies, Peg Jenkinson, Joan Postill, Evelyn Brayan, Men, Dorothy Cook, substituting, Don Hedges and Owen Gray. The travelling prize went to Mrs. Catton.
