

House belonged to Hoover, not Yake

The Tribune would like to apologize for its temporary spell of insanity in last week's issue for incorrectly running the picture of the Hoover family home above the history of the Yake family.

The indenture for the home at the end of O'Brien Ave. reads as follows: as of the 15th day of December 1847 the Chancellor, President, and Scholars of Kings College in York, Upper Canada and Christian Hoover, for the sum of 131 pounds, five shillings, Christian Hoover, was Miss Eva Hoover's great Grandfather. This farm was bought by the above for his son Jacob Hoover. Miss Hoover's father Elias was born here and farmed the land until he sold it to Bruce Harper's grandfather. There have been four generations of Harpers on this property.
