Girl Guides hold banquet

By ANNE LONEY
Kim Coppins, whose wedding was solemnized Sunday June 18, was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower given by her friends at Emerson Electric in Markham on Thursday, May 26, where she was employed. Along with her gifts was a delectable cake decorated with pink roses. That same evening a community shower was held at the home of her aunt, Bev Coppins, assisted by her three daughters, Cheryl, Denise and Michele, and Jackie Forte. At this party Kim was presented with her gifts while sitting in a chair beautifully decorated with streamers. Yellow and white were the colors at the shower given by Kim's cousin, Delight Baker of Stouffville, assisted by Ruth Winterstein and Jean Barclay. Also, on Sunday afternoon, May 29, Kim's girl friends welcomed her at the home of Renate Campsall of Uxbridge who was assisted by Chris Penny. All Kim's showers were miscellaneous ones; she was the recipient of some lovely and useful gifts for her new home.

The Girl Guides mother and daughter banquet was held in the Legion Hall on Monday, May 30. At the head table were District Commissioner, Jan Brook; Guide Captain Bonnie Jefferies; Lieutenant, Linda Carder; Cathy Beverley, Junior Helper of Girl Guides; Brown Owl Shelagh Mulveny second Claremont Brownie Company; Tawny Owl Nola Harper of Second Claremont Brownie Company; Brown Owl of third Brownie Company Ingrid Elliott; Snow Owl Hollie Bruce. Also at the head table was Anna Garret who is taking over for the second Brownies. All Guides received badge and year pins. A special all around cord was presented to Barbara Warden which is the highest cord given in Guiding. Also, six girls flew up from the Brownies to Guides; they were Susan Carder, Kim Marshall, Shelly Ferguson, Terrilyn Jones and Wendy Bates of second Brownie pack and Kristie McNish of third Brownie pack. Two girls, Sandy Valentino and Jane Binstead, also enrolled.

Claremont Legion Auxiliary members and friends will celebrate "Legion Week" from June 26 to July 2 to commemorate the 50 years since the Legion was formed, and what it stands for. Sunday there will be a job ball game in the park at 1 p.m. Monday, horseshoe pitching at back of the Legion from 5 to 9 p.m. Tuesday, a bingo open to everyone in the Legion Hall; Wednesday, euchre and darts at 8 p.m. in the clubroom; Thursday, Monte Carlo night at 8 p.m. in the clubroom; Friday, a teen dance, up to 17 years, and Saturday will be party night in the club room. Legion members and friends come out and have a week of fun, you'll be more than welcome.

Next Sunday morning at 9.45 a.m. will be the last Sunday for Sunday School in the Baptist Church until September 11. Pictures of Sunday School activities up to the past year will be featured. At the Sunday morning service at 11 a.m. they will have the privilege of a visit from the Moderator of the Trent Valley Association, Gavin Clutton of Fenelon Falls. Following the service the annual Church picnic will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kayes. On June 29 the Annual Sunday School and church barbecue will be held in Centennial Park, Brock Road South, at 6 p.m. Please bring salads, desserts and lawn chairs.

The Stewards of the Mount Zion Church are holding a strawberry social, beginning at 7.30 in the evening of Wednesday, June 29, until all are served. This is your invitation; you are very welcome.

During the months of July and August the pre-school story-time will be discontinued; also, the library will be closed on Saturdays. Librarian Marean Ward says that a few recent additions are on the shelves: "Twister" by Jack Bickham; "The Dreaming Swimmer" by Elisabeth Ogilvie; "Country Women" by Sherry Thomas and "Liner" by Noel Gerson.

Greenwood has lovely wedding

By Mildred McTaggart
A lovely wedding was solemnized in the Greenwood United Church on Saturday June 11th when Debra daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lee, Greenwood became the bride of Larry Alcock son of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Alcock, Toronto. Rev. John C. Hill, Columbus assisted by John VanGulick conducted the ceremony. The church was decorated with pots of yellow mums.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full length white nylon sheer gown over taffeta and carried a bouquet of yellow roses and white daisies. A comb with pearls held her waist length veil in place. Suzanne Clark, maid of honour and bridesmaids Nancy Lee and Diane Appleton wore hats with their long sheer gowns over yellow taffeta, and carried bouquets of yellow and white daisies. Junior bridesmaid Tammy Lee looked charming in a floral print with yellow hat and carried a basket of daisies. The bride's mother wore a long coral gown while the choice of the mother of the groom was turquoise.

The groom and best man, Earl Myles and ushers Ken Garland and Joe Chiasson looked smart in their beige tuxedos.

The wedding reception for over one hundred guests was held at the Claremont Legion Hall. The happy couple will be living in Pickering.

Watson clan has meeting
On Saturday, June 18, 45 members of the Watson family enjoyed an afternoon of visitation, games and feasting on the spacious grounds at the home of Bob and Margaret Lewis, sideroad 26 Pickering, R. 3, Claremont.
Myrtle Watson of Stouffville was honoured as the oldest member of the clan and Rachael Helen Lewis as the youngest.
Florence Richards, fourth generation of William Bolton Watson, came the farthest from Helena, Montana, for the picnic.
Others attending were from Michigan, Oshawa, Whitby, Uxbridge Markham, Toronto and Stouffville.
