

NOT ALWAYS WORK AT THE SCHOOLS

A look at Summitview school, the first town school, back when farming took place right at their doorstep. Henry McMullen is the figure on the left.

Frisky Frolics at Stoffville High School

Back in the 1930's the principal of the Stoffville High School was Mr. Carman Powell, whose main extra curricular activity was the staging of musical shows using high school talent. Above are a number of the girls of that day in a colorful number. They are (left to right) Zaida Barker, Mary Pegg, Erma Holden, Dorothy Meyers, Isobel Collard, Anna Scott, Mildred Burkitt, Viola Lehman, Edna Pugh, Edra Burkitt, Luella Gayman, Edna Sinclair.
