Claremont news

Tragic accident takes two lives

Our deep sympathy goes to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Timms in the fatal accident which took the life of their son, Randy, last Saturday morning, July 2. With him was Bob Mayne who was also killed instantly. The boys were on Randy's motor bike and going towards Claremont on the long curve of the Brock Road, south of Uxbridge, when the bike went out of control. The accident was even sadder since Randy had just celebrated his 18th birthday on June 30th. It is a terrible loss to his parents and his two brothers. He has left behind a tragic void which will be sadly remembered.

at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Holloway of Claremont on Saturday afternoon, June 26. Their many friends and neighbors, on the 10th sidewalk of Uxbridge, were in attendance. At the barbecue pot luck supper a farewell white cake, decorated with yellow roses, centered the table. Mrs. Holloway presented Mr. and Mrs. Heck with a Canada-U.S.A. friendship book titled "Between Friends." The popular Heck family will be missed by their many friends. Many pictures were taken for mementoes of friends at the party which they will remember when the Hecks are in their new home.

Bob Mayne's parents live in Toronto, but was boarding in the Village at the time of his death. Our sincere sympathy goes, also, to his parents in their great loss.

Another fine friend has passed, Jim Peddie, who lived in Claremont for many years, died in Oshawa Hospital last week. Our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Peddie and his two sons, Willard and Fred.

Sunday of last week, Mr. and Mrs. W.J. Briggs had several of their family visiting them on the weekend. With them were their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Winterburn of Bramalea; granddaughter, Mrs. Vince Kimblick, with her husband and daughter, Candy of Bramalea; their niece, Mrs. Margaret Caldwell of Thunder Bay, and the Briggs' son Tom and his wife, May, from Scarborough.

A former Clerk of Pickering Township, Lloyd Johnston, whose offices were in the old Brougham Municipal Building, and lived in his lovely home in Brougham, was well known in Claremont. He died last week. In recent years he made his home in Whitevale. Our sympathy is with Mrs. Johnston and his family in their sad bereavement.

A farewell party for Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Heck and family was held Uxbridge council has granted the Claremont Lions permission to hold a beer fest at the Claremont Community Park on July 23.

Birthday party and wedding shower held

RINGWOOD.—The Joseph Fockler family attended the 88th birthday party for Mrs. Harry Preston held at the home of her son Clarence of Cedar Valley. At the same time a wedding shower was held for Doug Cook and his bride Roxanne Nibitt of Thornhill.

Miss Doris Nesbitt, a missionary, is home on furlough from Niamey, Niger. She was the guest speaker and presented slides at the C.E. Missionary meeting on Wed. June 29.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bridgeman of Niagara Falls, Mrs. Harry Preston, and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Preston of RR 3 Newmarket were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fockler.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Smith have returned from a trip to the west coast.

Excelsior Class ladies met at the home of Mrs. Fred Jemmett, Stouffville on Tuesday afternoon. Pauline Hirsch of Lemonville was guest speaker.

Congratulations to Lorne Morgason whose float, "Centennial Seniors" won first prize in the Homecoming parade and to Linda Vague who won fourth prize, with her two goats, in the pet show category for unusual pets.

In the church service we joined Stouffville centennial celebrations by wearing suitable costume and singing the centennial song.
