Claremont news

Youth wins in plowing

At the Thanksgiving service in the Baptist Church on Oct. 9 at 11 a.m. there will be special music and singing by the Harvelities. The Rev. Lorne Smith will bring the message.

Twenty-one walkers took part in the Claremont Lions Walkathon on Sat., Sept. 24. They raised $1,200 which will be shared between the Lions Club, the Canadian Cancer Society, the Heart Fund, the CNTB, and the Brownies. The one who walked for the most money was Louise Redshaw. The Lions would like to thank all those participated and, in particular, The Claremont REACT Club for their assistance.

The new year for the Claremonts Lionettes began on Sept. 13, when the first meeting was opened with their new President, Lionette Karen Hammond. Their next meeting will be at the home of Lionette Shirley Pikey on Oct. 11 at 7:30 p.m. sharp. The roll call, "Bring New Ideas." Also, there will be a baby shower for Lionette Denise Norton whose baby girl, Michell, is now over five weeks old.

Lorne Britton won the top award of $500 for ages 15, 16 and 17, at the International Plowing Match held in Kingston last week. The award was presented at a Banquet on Friday evening. Congratulations Lorne.

Corrie Almack was home over the weekend from the University of Guelph where he is in his first year of the four year Agricultural Science Program. Also at home was Clare Almack from Toronto where she has accepted a position with Clarkson and Gordon Accountants.

The monthly meeting of the Evening Unit of the UCW was held at the home of Lillian Gauslin on Monday 3. The program was arranged by Rhoda Almack with Elected officers of the Lionettes for the coming year will be as follows: Past Pres., Betty Ann Meredith; Pres., Karen Hammond; 1st. Vice-Pres., Linda Caruthers; Secretary, Barbara Tran; Treas., Denise Norton; Tail Twister, Linda Gauslin and Lion Tamer, Sandy Blaw.

Gormley couple's 50th anniversary

By EVELYN MILSTED
Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Elias who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with a family dinner at Aurora last week. Their Gormley neighbours presented them with a copy of the Whitechurch - Stouffville centennial book. The Gormley Women's Institute presented Mrs. Elias with a gold trimmed cup and saucer.

Darlene Nichols, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Nichols, had the misfortune of breaking her arm and is now wearing a cast. Miss Cooper from British Columbia is visiting her father, Mr. Harry Cooper and her brother, Mr. Sid Cooper.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gamble have sold their farm and are moving to Bond Head at the end of October. Their auction sale is on Oct. 12. Harold Doner who worked for several years on the book entitled "The Doners in Canada" sold out his first edition very quickly. He has had requests for more copies from as far as Redding, Cal. He is considering having a second edition printed. Any one interested may contact him at 888-1939. Harold worked so hard on this worthwhile book, we are pleased it has been such a success.

Mrs. Fred Doust is recuperating at home after spending two weeks in York Central Hospital in Richmond Hill.

Mrs. Lloyd Sibley, who has been critically ill in Sunnybrook Hospital in Toronto, is making considerable improvement.

Mrs. Jos. Wilson of Uxbridge, known to a number in our community, is in the Coffage Hospital there after breaking her hip for the second time.

Beulah Jones has returned from a month's visit with friends in Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sider of Wainfleet were weekend guests of her

Judith Best of Claremont who gave a talk and demonstration on the Craft of the Silversmith. Mrs. Best is a Lecturer at Sheridan College. The Roll Call was answered by "Bring a vegetable and telling how it was prepared."

From October 11 to 15 will be "AMNESTY WEEK" in the library; all overdue books may be returned at this time without paying the usual overdue fines. Two recent additions on the shelves are "The Honorable Schoolboy" by John LeCarre and the "Pictorial History of Stouffville" compiled by Jean Barkey. Librarian Marean Ward, asked the parents to please remember the pre-school story-time on Wednesday's at 3 p.m.

The PeeWee Boys went with their coaches, Jim and Ted Redshaw, to see the final games of the Blue Jays in Toronto. The Blue Jays won the first game 2-1 and lost the last game 5-4 to the Cleveland Indians.

Frank Jenkinson won a third prize with his home grown peanuts at the Markham Fair last Saturday, and also a third prize with his Spanish Onions at the Uxbridge Fair.

The Markham Melody Makers Ladies Barber Shop Chorus are holding a two hour show in the Markham District High School on Saturday, Oct. 15 at 8 p.m. in Claremont, please contact Jean Drake or Rosemary Timms for tickets. Rosemary will be singing "Second Hand Rose."

Elected officers of the Lionettes for the coming year will be as follows: Past Pres., Betty Ann Meredith; Pres., Karen Hammond; 1st. Vice-Pres., Linda Caruthers; Secretary, Barbara Tran; Treas., Denise Norton; Tail Twister, Linda Gauslin and Lion Tamer, Sandy Blaw.

153rd year for church

The local Christian church celebrated their 153rd anniversary with a good attendance both morning and evening service. Rev. M. Cuthbert of Burlington was guest speaker and Mrs. Cuthbert, soloist. It was an enjoyable occasion.

Congratulations to Mrs. M. Keith on winning several prizes at last weekend's Markham Fair.
