The period for correcting enumeration data and any alteration in school support shall be Monday to Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. until 4:30 p.m. Monday, November 14th, 1977.

Applications for alteration of school support shall be on forms available at the Municipal Offices, 19 Civic Avenue, Stouffville, Ontario.

R. E. Corner, Clerk

STOUFFVILLE SCENE

What's going on

There goes the Bride
"There goes the Bride," an extremely funny comedy is playing at Herongate Barn Theatre, Altona Road Pickering, Friday and Saturday evenings until November 26th.

A bump on the head for the father of the bride on the morning of his daughter's wedding causes many strange and hilarious events to occur involving all members of the family.

For a very enjoyable and entertaining evening, make reservations now for dinner and the show by calling 294-0426 or 649-2641.

Wiring meetings
The schedule of hearings for the inquiry on aluminum wiring is: at the Scarborough Civic Centre, 150 Borough Drive, on Thursday, November 17th at 2:30 p.m. and 7 p.m. and on Friday, November 18th at 2:30 p.m. and 7 p.m.

The Toronto area hearings at 21st Floor, 180 Dundas St. W on Monday, November 21 at 2:30 p.m. and 7 p.m., November 22 at 10 a.m. and 2:30 p.m., November 23, 10 a.m. and 2:30 p.m.

Kinette dance

The Kinette Dance for Cystic Fibrosis Research will be held at Goodwood Hall, Saturday, Nov. 5 at 8:30 p.m. The cost is $6 per couple and dress is casual. There will be a disc jockey to supply the music. His name is Ken Sweeting from D.J. Services and he has donated part of his time since all monies made are going to Cystic Fibrosis Research. The Canadian Tire store in Stouffville has donated an electric baseboard heater as a door prize. Aiken's I.D.A., Stedman's, Orchard Park Mens Wear, Stouffville Submarine and Sgt. Dymment's Chicken have donated spot dance prizes. Advance tickets can be purchased at the Stouffville I.G.A. Bakery Counter or at the door. Please plan to attend the Kinette Dance and help us support Cystic Fibrosis Research.

Merry Men
The Merry Men of Markham are holding auditions for admissions (A for A) on Tuesday, November 22nd at 7:30 p.m. at Markham arena, east entrance upstairs, Hwy. 7 and 48.

Men who like to sing are cordially invited to attend this special evening, designed to give them the opportunity of singing in a barber shop chorus or quartet.

An excellent programme is planned and those who come will enjoy the fun. Musical talent is not necessary but it does help if you can carry a tune. Our music director will help you to choose which voice range is yours - lead, bass, tenor or baritone.

For further information, telephone 438-5254, after 6 p.m.

Pigs at Royal
Forty-five young people from across Ontario will compete at the Ontario Junior Barrow Show on November 11. The show is part of the Royal Agricultural Winter Fair in Toronto.

A total of 100 barrows, each weighing a minimum of 225 pounds, will be shown, says Jan Whitehead, of the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food Youth Extension.

Aquarium show
The Willowdale Aquarium Society and the Toronto Beta Buffs are holding their 12th annual show on Sunday, November 6 at Northview Heights Collegiate, 550 Finch Ave. W., in Willowdale. The time is 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. and is the largest annual fish show of any Society in Canada.

Pre-Confederation
Black Creek Pioneer Village recalls the period after the harvest, with special activities reminiscent of long-past days, on weekends, from November 5th through November 20th, 2 - 4 p.m.

The Village program features the chores and skills associated with everyday living in a rural crossroads community in Ontario, prior to Confederation. In the Village homes, costumed householders busily spin and hook rugs. In the Weaver's Shop, the Village Weaver can be seen making lengths of woolen material. Broom-making is also a featured activity, weekends in November, 2 - 4 p.m., in the Village Broom-Maker's Shop.

Here's Jean Hammond vocalizing at her one-woman recital at the Stouffville United Church last Wednesday. The recital was her part in raising money for the Church addition, after receiving her talent money from the Church. Her efforts netted her $230 for the Church, with some people donating without attending her recital.

Gordon Sinclair & friends

But even friends disagree. That's their prerogative as newscomentators. Each one different; each one with his own approach to the news. Four newscomentators extraordinary!

Gordon Sinclair for 'News and Comments' 11:50 AM, weekdays.
He's the dean of 'News and Comments'. The original loveable, irascible fighter. On some days you'll agree with what he had to say, on others you won't, but one thing everyone agrees upon is that he'll get you to think.

Torben Witttrup for 'News and Comments' 8 AM and 6:30 PM, Mon.-Fri.
His consistently 'accurate' news will keep you on top of what's happening here and around the world. He's your man for 'Authoritative News.'

Bob Hesketh for 'News and Comments' 1 PM and 5:50 PM, weekdays.
A free-thinker, outspoken reporter, feature writer and newscaster. His blend of sarcasm, wit and humour makes for dramatic listening.

Charles Doering for 'News and Comments' at 7 AM and 10 AM Monday through Friday.
His straightforward, no-nonsense approach to 'News and Comments' is refreshing. He pulls no punches and his comments usually hit home. It's this kind of 'people' combination that makes CFRB's News Commentary Team the most listened-to group in town.
