

TV star minister at Bethel Assembly

REV. DAVID MAINSE

RINGWOOD — Bethel Assembly in Ringwood was recently honoured to have Rev. David and Norma Jean Mainse as guests at their 11 a.m. service.

An appreciative crowd turned out to listen as Brother Mainse explained God's leadership in directing the launching of the 100 Huntley St. television program. This is the first Christian daily telecast in Canada and is a result of many courageous acts by Rev. and Mrs. Mainse.

The program appears on Global Television, Monday to Friday, 9:30, Saturday at 10 a.m. and Sundays after midnight. Dedication of a new piano for the sanctuary of Bethel Assembly was a memorable part of the service and the presentation was made by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McLaren of North St., Stouffville.

The instrument was placed in loving memory of their nephew Duncan Campbell Parker, who died April 13, 1977.

Pastor Howard Minaker made the declaration of dedication and Rev. Mainse offered the prayer.

Mr. and Mrs. McLaren were thanked by Pastor Minaker for their gift to the church.

Zephyr couple wedding

Baskets of pink gladioli, daisies and Sweet William decorated Zephyr United Church on June 11, 1977, for the wedding of Laurel Anne Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Thompson, Zephyr, to Douglas Dunkeld, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dunkeld, also of Zephyr.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and the double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. W. C. Sellars. The bride looked lovely in a white chiffon over taffeta gown accented with pink rose appliques and pink ribbon along the empire waist. Her shoulder length, illusion veil was held in place by a rhinestone and pearl headpiece. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and white chrysanthemums.

Pam Thompson, sister of the bride, was maid of honour and the bridesmaids were Pat Hockley, Susan Hall, Bernice Dunkeld, sister of the groom, and Andrea Cavers. They were all gowned alike in floor length pink chiffon dresses with capes and they carried bouquets of pink carnations and daisies.

Ron Dean, friend of the groom, was best man and the ushers were Gary Hall, Larry Hall, Brian Jones and Steven Dunkeld, brother of the groom. They wore Westwood blue tuxedos with boutonnieres of white carnations.

Mary Blackstock was the soloist and Helen Rynard was the organist. Mrs. Rynard was also the organist at the wedding of the bride's parents 26 years before.

The reception was held at the Granit Restaurant where the bride's mother received wearing a gown of printed chiffon over blue taffeta with a matching cape, white accessories and an orchid corsage. She was assisted by the groom's mother who chose a full length blue polyester gown with pleated chiffon sleeves accented with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

Merton McNelly, uncle of the bride, acted as master of ceremonies at the reception.

Laurel Anne Thompson and Douglas Dunkeld, both from Zephyr, were wed last June in Zephyr United Church. It was a double-ring ceremony. The couple spent their honeymoon travelling to various parts of Eastern Ontario. They now reside in Stouffville.

Christmas Sale and Demonstration The Markham Guild of Village Crafts is holding its annual Christmas Sale and Demonstration Saturday, Nov. 12 from 1.30 to 4.30 p.m. at the Markham arena. The sale will feature weaving, pottery, batik, toys and other potential gifts. The Markham Guild headquarters at 140 Main St., will also be open for sales every Saturday from November 19 to December 17 from 10 a.m. till 4 p.m.

Summitview Sale The Summitview P.T.A. rummage sale, originally planned for Saturday, Nov. 26, has been moved ahead one week so that it will not conflict with the annual Santa Parade scheduled for the same day. The sale will be held at the school from 10 to 12 a.m. on Saturday, Nov. 19.

Pregnancy course

A series of six classes for expectant mothers and fathers will be held in Stouffville, beginning on Thursday, November 17. These classes provide information relating to the physical, social and emotional changes.

The classes are conducted by the York Regional Health Unit. For further information and registration, telephone the Health Unit at 887-5245.

Memorial fund Friends and former students of the late Anne Lehman are asked to contribute to the Anne Lehman Memorial Fund.

The money collected will be presented in her name to the Parkview Nursing Home, one of her most ardent interests. Cheques payable to the memorial fund may be deposited at the Bank of Commerce. For further information call Carole Morin at 640-3716 or Eleanor Shaw at 640-2691.

Gormley news

94th birthday coming

By EVELYN MILSTED Congratulations to Rev. Alvin Winger who will celebrate his 94th birthday on Nov. 17. Rev. Winger has been a resident of Parkview Home in Stouffville for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Holmes of Shellbrook, Sask., are visiting relatives in our area. They came for the 90th birthday of his mother, Clara Wells.

Winnie Gillis of North Bay visited with former neighbours and friends for a couple of weeks.

Margaret Ann Lewis, for several years a resident here, passed away in Centenary Hospital on Thursday and was buried from St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church in Markham on Monday afternoon. Interment was in Pine Hills Cemetery, Halloween has become more than Shell Out for children. Two older boys, one dressed as a tramp and one a spaceman (where probably he should have stayed), visited at the Gormley Rest Home, and while being treated by some of the residents, threw an egg over the panelling and ceiling of the inside hall. This made a real mess, and certainly this is carrying things too far.

Mr. and Mrs. George Barrett of Gravenhurst and Mrs. Delbert Baker were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Doust.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sherck of Poole were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Elliott.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Brash welcomed a baby daughter, Cindy Ann Lynne, last Wednesday.

The 104th Anniversary services at the Missionary Church were well attended on Sunday. The offering of $1530. was given to the support of Bonnie Harvey in California and other Mission projects.

Greenwood girl awarded trophy

By MILDRED McTAGGART

About 60 children turned out for the Halloween party at the Mount Zion Community Center on Sat. Oct. 29th.

The party was organized and led by the Junior Youth Group. Amanda Tait dressed as a clown and Robin and Kelly Raeburn as Raggedy Ann and Andy were chosen for best costumes.

Congratulations to Beth Hoar who was presented with the Anne Stratton Memorial Trophy for the All-Round Girl at the Pickering H.S. Commencement on Friday night. Beth was also awarded the Ontario Scholarship of Merit.

Others winning the Ont. Scholarship in this area were, John Bentley, Louise Cranfield, and Ron Mowbray.

The 4H Homemaking Club girls invited their mothers to luncheon at the C.E. Building on Saturday. The girls demonstrated their culinary skills learned while taking the Unit, 'The Cereal Shelf.'

Beatrice McLean spoke on Alcohol and Drug Concerns at two services near Smith Falls on Sunday.

Pickering's newly formed Nature Club will have their next outing at the Uxbridge Forest on Saturday, Nov. 12th. Meet at Edge Pegg's at 9:30 a.m. After a poke-along walk to look for Red Crossbills and other winter finches there will be barbecued hot dogs and coffee.

The Greenwood U.C.W. are holding 'A Christmas Carol' Bazaar on Saturday Nov. 19th 2-4 p.m. Come and visit Mrs. Cratoni's Bake Shoppe or find some Christmas gifts in Scrooges Attic, Miss Belinda's Boutique or Tiny Tims Fish Pond.
