

Several of the local youths were presented with top awards at the Plowman's Association Annual Banquet held at Victoria Square last weekend. Ken Wells (centre) won first in Classes 3 and 9 in the East York Match, as well as two special awards, and finished first in Class 5, in the North York Match as well. His brother Kevin, on the left, did almost as well, and Eric Timbers, on the right walked off with a first in Class 9. The festivities were heightened by the young lady on the far right, who entertained the diners with several Scottish airs.
