Peewee B team loses to wrong N.Y. team

Stouffville's Atom B team and the Bay Ridges squad squared off last week in an exciting, action packed game and came away with a 1-1 tie.

Atom A's get game ending win

On Friday, November 11 the team from Bowmanville came to town and shut out the Stouffville Atom A squad 2-0.

The following night in Lindsay, however, the Atoms fared much better and squeaked out a 4-3 decision, won on a penalty shot by Kenny Burrows just as time ran out of the game.

The Atoms, playing their third game in only a few days, came up against the Peterborough Major boys and were beaten 4-1. The lone Stouffville goal was scored by Brad Evans, assisted by Kevin Ferris.

The Atom A's next game in league play will be this Sunday, Nov. 27 in Peterborough at 1:30 p.m.

There were numerous scoring chances for both teams but good goaltending kept the score down. Stouffville's lone goal went to Steven Lewis.

Following the Bay Ridges game the Atoms went up against Uxbridge and skated away with an easy 7-2 win. The team got superb goaltending from Jeff Wilkinson and James Stewart.

Brian Lewis opened the scoring for Stouffville on a fine goal, with Jeff Conway assisting. Other Stouffville goals went to David Fockler, Steven Lewis, Danny Underwood, Jeff Conway, and Stuart Hazell. Assists went to Todd Rex-Graham. Uxbridge goals from Mike Davie and Mike Durham.

The next Atom B game takes place tonight (Thursday) at the Arena when Uxbridge is back for a rematch. Game time is 7 p.m.
