Karen Brown also had a two goal effort in the game, with Lori Mason and Kathleen Kamps assisting on the first, and Kim Morley and Dawn Schell on the second.

Other Sales goals went to Lori Mason from Sandy Hardy and Lynda Roberts and two unassisted goals off the sticks of Cheryl Singleton and Lynda Roberts.

The lone tally for the Credit Union club came from Sharon Watts. Cathy McArthur and Kelly Rex-Graham had the assists.

In the other senior game the IGA and L & M Gardens squared off and came up with an exciting 2-2 tie. The game was played in very cold conditions but the girls put on a fine show.

IGA goals were scored by Joyln Ayotte and Brenda Steel. Brenda Lehman and Terri Pilkey assisted for Joyln's tally and Cathy Kealey and Maureen Kamps picked up the assists on Brenda Steel's goal.

Heather Dunkeld scored both of the L & M Gardens goals with Laura Gullikson with two and Janet Dunkeld getting the assists.

In junior play it was Jackie Armet who led her Gormley Greenhouses team to a 4-2 victory over the Lions.

Jackie's first was assisted by Gloria Mintz; her second goal came unassisted and her final one that gave her the hat trick was put in an empty net as the Lions had pulled their goalie in an unsuccessful effort to tie up the game.

Gormley's other goal was put in by Cathy Thomas, with Debbie Heard getting the assist.

The Lions' two goals were netted by Janette Cooper and Dorothy Colleen McConnell and Jackie Seman assisted on both goals.

The fourth girls' game was a shutout effort by the Kinsmen, as they blanked Laurelea Flowers 4-0.

The Kinsmen were led by Donna Bangay, who had two goals and one assist. Julie Thompson picked up assists on both of Donna's goals.

Other Kinsmen goals were scored by Erin Shephard, assisted by Heidey Todd, and Julie Thompson pocketed the fourth goal with Donna assisting.

Tammy Petterson Stoney Creek, and then they travel to Newtonbrook for a return match on Tuesday, Dec. 20 at 8 p.m. Newtonbrook beat Stouffville 7-5 last week so it should be an interesting match.

Reader feels sport coverage incomplete

Dear Sir:

I have just finished reading the Sports Page of this week's edition of the paper and find it to be most incomplete.

I would like to think that the following request is on behalf of several hundred hockey players, coaches and managers who contribute their time and energy at the local arena.

Many, many parents have been heard to say that "young Johnny," whose parents pay taxes which contribute to the functioning of the arena, monies to draws and registration fees to the W.S.M.H.A., should expect that when he performs well on the ice, could see his name in the local paper as a reward for the effort put forth by himself and his parents.

Knowing many of the gentlemen on the executive of the W.S.M.H.A., and the don't entirely agree with Mr. Hamilton, and feel that we try our best to get in as many "young Johnnys" as we can. It is impossible to cover every hockey game so we have to rely on the coaches to get in the game results. We also feel that so far the coaches and managers have been doing a good job getting in the reports and as long as they do we will be putting in the "young Johnnys."

Complete domination was the story in last week's Bantam B game, as Stouffville whitewashed Port Perry 7-0.

On the seasons series with Port Perry, Stouffville has won two, lost one and had one game tied.

Fraud charge

A waiver of jurisdiction has been obtained and all necessary information has been forwarded to Napanee Provincial Court regarding an offense in the Stouffville area October 21, when a saddle was purchased and paid for by a false cheque.

Police said on October 21, the accused man bought an Arabian show saddle from Allan Humphrey, R.R. 4, Stouffville and paid $934.60 by cheque, which was returned marked "No Such Account."

On Dec. 3 Graydon Donald Irish, 28, of R.R. 2, Napanee was apprehended by Napanee OPP on similar charges, and this one was also listed.

The accused man will appear at Napanee Court Dec. 19.

Uxbridge man dies of exposure

"Is it true I'd now have to work longer to collect Unemployment Insurance?"

Yes. Parliament has decided that the qualification time should be longer everywhere, and that people who live in areas of high unemployment should be given certain advantages over those who live in areas where jobs are more plentiful.

Which means that you now need more insurable work weeks to qualify for Unemployment Insurance benefits.

"I can see why. But just how long would I have to work to be eligible?"

From 10 to 14 weeks, depending on where you live.

In regions of low unemployment, claimants need up to 14 weeks of insurable employment to get UI benefits. This will only happen in places where it's easier to get and keep a job.

In regions of high unemployment, claimants now need as little as 10 weeks to qualify.

"Does this mean I'd get less or that the payments wouldn't last as long?"

No change in payment amounts. The UI benefit rate stays at two-thirds of your average weekly insurable earnings.

The maximum is $147, less tax.

The maximum time for which anyone may receive benefits has changed slightly, however. The old maximum was 51 weeks. Now it's 50 weeks.

But since September 11, the total number of weeks for which a claimant qualifies has more closely reflected the unemployment rate in his or her region.

Right now, we measure unemployment by dividing Canada into 16 economic regions.

Maternity benefits of 15 weeks and the special one-time benefit (equal to three weeks' benefits) at age 65 remain the same.

The same people still pay for the program in the same proportions, and the types of employment insurable for UI remain the same, too.

"Would I still go to the same UI office to claim?"

As explained in the box below, you still go to the familiar locations for both UI offices and Canada Manpower Centres. Watch for changes in your area.

Unemployment Insurance has changed for everyone's benefit, including yours. All we ask is that you remember your obligations as well as your rights.

If the need should ever arise for you to come to us, we'll make sure you get all the UI benefits to which you are entitled by law. But you must keep up the search for a new job all the time you're getting those benefits.

Later in 1978, we will fine-tune the program to 54 regions so that UI will be even more closely related to local labour market conditions.

"What else is changing about UI?"

Not much.

The basic two week waiting period remains the same everywhere. And so do the rules on the waiting period when a claimant has left his or her job for no good reason or been fired for misconduct. In such cases, a claimant may have to wait up to eight weeks from when employment ends until benefits start.

Then there's maternity, sickness and age 65 benefits.

Previously, sickness benefits were only payable during the first 39 weeks of the claim. Now they're payable at any time during the entire benefit period.

The Unemployment Insurance Commission and the Department of Manpower and Immigration have become the Canada Employment and Immigration Commission. For a time, you'll still see our local offices identified as Unemployment Insurance offices or Canada Manpower Centres. When they're together in one location, they'll be called Canada Employment Centres.
