

Some members of the audience were not content to wait for the gong. Here little Jennifer More, although barely three years old, expresses her critical judgment by blowing a raspberry.

All I want for Christmas is my two front-teeth, sang Marjorie Davie and Rena Hudson and the crowd loved it. Mrs. Davie is the wife of Gord Davie, Mayor of Uxbridge, who was one of the judges.

Even UDSS orchestra dressed up for the gong show. Headgear ran the whole gamut from visors to furry helmets with earflaps, but our favorite was Mike Barton's hockey helmet. Students raised over $1,300 to buy a stereo for the seniors at Daheim Nursing Home and had enough money left over to host a Christmas party and contribute to the arena fund.

UDSS gong show hilarious from delightful to disgusting

Drivers survive head-on collision

O.P.P. Constable Cal Gainforth has credited seat belts with saving the lives of a local man and another from Don Mills, in a crash on Highway 48 at 18th Avenue shortly before 1 p.m., Sunday.

Constable Gainforth said Ewald Mazurek, 73, of Don Mills was northbound on Highway 48, overtaking another northbound vehicle, when he crashed head-on into a southbound car driven by Dmytro Haluszka, 56, of Stouffville.

Damage to the Mazurek car, a 1977 Monte Carlo, was estimated at $3,500, and to Mr. Haluszka's 1974 Oldsmobile at $2,500. Neither driver was seriously injured. Charges are pending.
