My perfect Christmas is having presents under the tree. And some of them for me. We sing carols on Christmas day To celebrate Jesus' birthday.

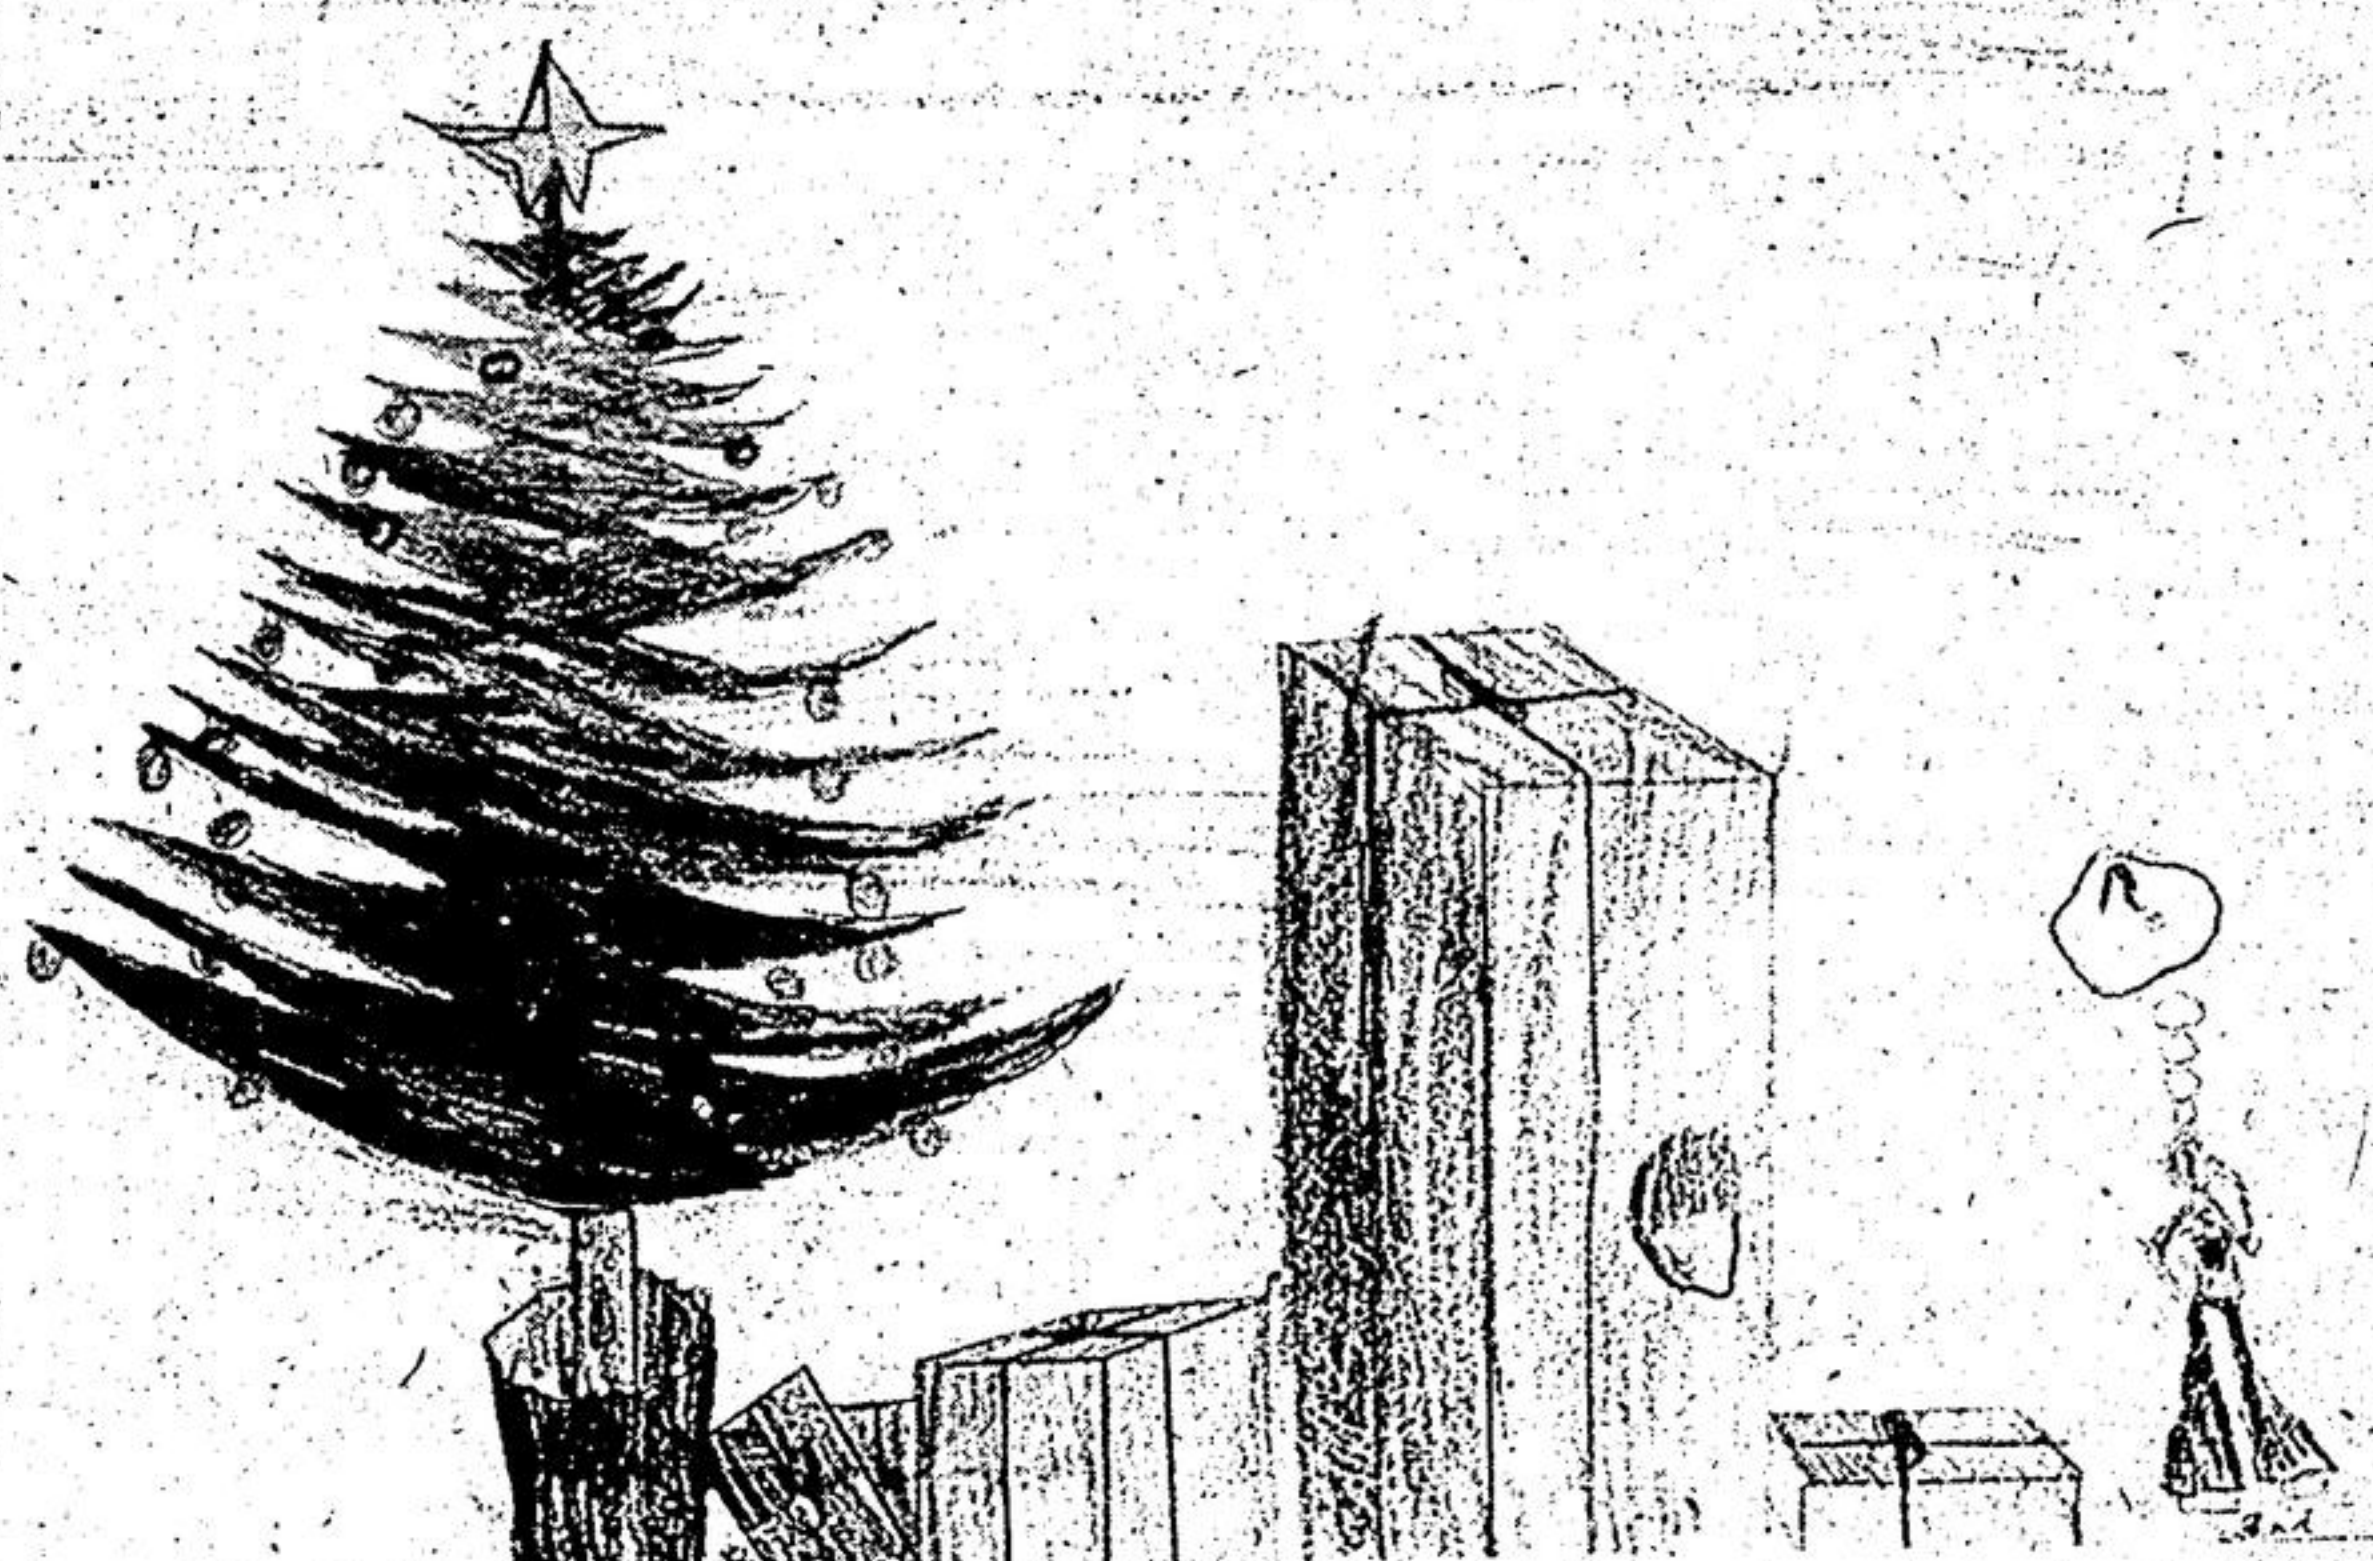

"My Perfect Christmas" was the theme of our art contest and entries varied from Santa Claus to Christmas stars. Unfortunately we did not have room for all the pictures.

However, the only other winning entry pictured is a drawing by Kevin Atkinson, age 7, who tied for third in his category. Kevin included a poem with his entry and it has been reprinted at left.

Contest winners can collect their prizes at The Tribune office, Monday to Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.
