Getting the Christmas tree is always a special part of the holiday season, and the man above apparently wants to be certain he gets the right one. It's the first time we've seen a boat load of Christmas trees and we do hope he finds a nice one from the load he has.

Greetings

May your holidays be a model of good fortune and happiness. Special thanks to all our friends.

Molstar ski event
 Molstar's gold challenge ski cup will be holding one of its series of races in the Dagmar resort, Claremont, on Sunday, Jan. 29.

The Molstar cup is a new program which will see racing competition between teams representing particular Molstar areas.

A race will also be held Wednesday, Feb. 1 in Honey Pot resort, Richmond Hill.

Team playing well
 Stouffville's Atom B team squared off against Markham last Thursday and came away with a 3-3 tie.

David Fockler opened the scoring with Brian Lewis and Kent Dunkeld popping in the other two. Assists went to Todd Rex-Graham, Martin Wells and David Fockler.

Markham goal-scorers were Mike Stewart, Daryl Johnson and Peter Hencher.

Stouffville coaches Al Stacy and Morris Hamilton are pleased with the way the boys have been playing and have brought them a long, successful way since the season opener.

Midgets lose
 The Stouffville Midget team was out-gunned 4-1 by Ajax in a game played last Friday night.

Stouffville opened the scoring early in the first period on a goal by Gary Carr from Kelly Burrows. Ajax tied it up and then pulled off three unanswered goals for the win.

Only superb play by goalie Rick Ryckman held the score down.
