Goodwood

Jim Todd best goalie in novice Showdown

By Elsie Boland

Congratulations to Jimmy Todd for being best goalie in Showdown which was held last Saturday morning in the Stouffville arena.

He won highest timer and the economy award sponsored by Coca Cola in the Novice class. He plays for Commercial Sand and Gravel in the house league. Let us hope Jimmy makes it to Maple Leaf Gardens.

Here is history repeating itself for Goodwood. Let's have more hockey news next week for any of you hockey fans and players.

Bingo was well attended despite the weather last Wednesday evening. Next bingo is Wednesday, Feb. 1 at 7:30 p.m. Early birds, specials and two jack pots in 54 numbers. We want more people.

Euchre is Wednesday, Jan. 25 in the Goodwood Hall at 8 p.m. Hope the weather is fine so we can have a big crowd, the more the merrier.

Quiltings are still the order of the day at Elva Symes. We are on our fourth quilt, so anyone wishing to quilt or have a quilt that they want quilted get in touch at 640-2249.

Block parents had a meeting in the library of the Goodwood school. A new thing for Goodwood but other town's have had it for some time. It is a way of helping.

Brownies meet every Thursday night at 6:30 p.m. in the gym and the Girl Guides meet at the same time in the library.

A house warming took place on Thursday, Jan. 12 when 4th line neighbours and friends gathered at the home of Maude Feasby, Prince Albert, to spend the afternoon and presented her with a lovely table lamp.

Mrs. Feasby recently moved to Prince Albert and we were sorry to see her leave but we wish her many happy days in her new home.

Glen Major news

Annie Stewart 105

By JENNIE JOHNSON

Annie Stewart, a resident at the Fairview Lodge, Whitby, marked her 105th birthday on Sunday, Jan. 15.

She was born in Uxbridge township in 1873 and received her schooling at the Glen Major Public School. Later, she was a seamstress and with her sister, Mrs. Davidson, operated a dress making shop in Toronto. On her retirement, she moved to Oshawa.

For the past two years she has been a resident at the Fairview Lodge. She is well known by several Glen Major friends who were pleased to remember her on this very special occasion.

The youth group from Mt. Zion and Greenwood United Churches enjoyed an afternoon of tobogganing on the hills at Edgar Fiss's property. It was a perfect day, sunny and crisp, and a bonfire to warm tingling fingers and toes and to heat the delicious lunch, her mother. The gown was highlighted by a hood and full length cape of Venetian lace. She carried a crescent bouquet of red sweetheart roses, baby's breath and heather. The maid of honor, Ellyson Craigg, of Calgary, wore a rust colored velvet skirt with a multi-colored sheer blouse and matching hat. She carried a bouquet of orange sweetheart roses, daisies and baby's breath.

Murray Eldon of Willowdale was best man for the groom. The ushers were Paul Widger, brother of the bride, and Tom Crothers, a friend of the groom.

Reverend Father Paul Cusack officiated at the double ring ceremony.

A luncheon-reception followed at the Ramada Inn — Don Valley where the Mother of the bride received the guests wearing a deep rose colored floor length gown of polyester crepe with a mauve orchid corsage. The Mother of the groom wore a floor length gown of navy with baby blue and white flowers with a mauve orchid corsage. The happy couple left for a honeymoon in Nassau and are now living in Willowdale.
