BY ELSIE BOLAND
 The Goodwood baseball dance is this Saturday, March 4 at 8 p.m. in the Goodwood Hall. Let's have a good crowd as the money is needed for the baseball this year. Tickets are available at 640-5236 or 640-2767.
 The General UCW had their meeting last Wednesday afternoon. Devotion was taken by Siloam. We will be having a maple syrup supper, details later.
 Leslie Mitchell arrived home on Saturday from Centenary Hospital, after his operation. Wish him the best of health.
 Institute members remember our meeting coming up Monday

March 13 in Goodwood Hall.
 Uxbridge Pee-wees No. 2 won three out of five games.
 Bingo is Wednesday evening, March 11, in the Hall. Jackpots haven't gone as yet and we are hoping for a lot of new faces.
 Reported last week the Peterson family home had been burned down, it should have read Paterson family.
 Mrs. Ronnie Bell has been in York Hospital at Newmarket. She was expected home on Monday.
 Quilting as usual this week. Wednesday evening was euchre night. Next euchre will be March 8. Please keep in mind.
 There was a an oratorical contest at Goodwood school on Tuesday, Feb. 21. It was between Goodwood and Webb school and for grades 4 to 6. Heather Cole of Goodwood won first and she spoke on "Winnie the Pooh". Cherie Lyn Yeates of Goodwood came second and she spoke of "Noses".

 A lady from New Jersey, USA receives the Tribune each week and enjoys the hockey results in the Goodwood news. Isn't it surprising how The Tribune circulates. More news please.
 Eddie Shack has to work harder. Stewart Todd got a goal for Hathaways defeating Kinsmen 3-2.

Retired judge dead

Col. O. S. Hollinrake, war veteran, retired judge, and for many years resident at Ballantrae, passed away on Thursday at age 79. A family funeral service was held on Saturday.
 He retired from the bench in 1968 after 21 years as magistrate in Newmarket, the former towns of New Toronto and Mimico and in Etobicoke. Along with other magistrates, he was elevated to the provincial courts a few months before retirement.
 Born in Ingersoll, he attended school in Toronto and was a graduate of Royal Military College in Kingston.
 Serving with the Royal Artillery, Hollinrake was a battle-experienced veteran of World War I. After demobilization, he studied law and practised in Toronto until the start of World War II in 1939, when he abandoned his law career to join the army again.
 At the time, he was commander of a Royal Canadian Army militia unit but authorities decided he was the man to command No. 2 District Depot at Exhibition Park in Toronto.

 Hollinrake returned to his law practice at war's end and was appointed a magistrate in 1947.
 He received the Order of the British Empire in 1944 and the Centennial Medal in 1967.
 He leaves two sons, Nicholas of Montreal and Anthony of Belfountain, Ont.

Through all the hustle and bustle of last week's Summitview Public School science fair, Danny Fusco, above, got the chance to relax on the gym floor. Although Danny's Wine project didn't win, he does seem quite pleased with himself. Winners at the fair, who will now go on to the area meet this month were: Doug Smurthwaite for solar energy; Vena Persaud and Sandy Stover for air pressure; Raffaella Degli Angele and Charlene Turcotte for water; Jerom Verhoog and Jim Streifel for railroads; David Darling - wheat; Jim Ku and Ganesh Persaud won for their faulting project; Lee Carney for water; Jim Stuart and Stewart Hazel for static electricity; Wayne Stevens and Brent LeFman for solar heating; and Kelly Carrick for his quicksand project.

STOUFFVILLE SCENE

What's going on

United church choir
 The choir of Stouffville United church will present a musical concert entitled "Put a Song in Your Heart" on Thursday, March 9 at 7:30 p.m. at the church.
 Under the direction of Alan Gent, the group will sing selections from "Oliver, The King and I, and the Sound of Music" as well as some old favourites.
 The instrumental numbers will feature David Howard on trombone; Alice Hamm on the cornet and well known local organist Clarion Baker. Included in the program will be piano and organ duets by Jean Hammond and Alan Gent.
 There is no charge for the concert but an offering will be received and all proceeds donated to the church building project.

Poet at Library
 The Whitchurch-Stouffville Public Library is pleased to present Mike Doyle, Canadian Poet, Wednesday 7:30 p.m., March 8, in the Latcham Gallery. Mr. Doyle will be reading a selection of poems from his six previous books. Mike Doyle was born in England, has lived many years in New Zealand and has taught at the University of Victoria, B.C. since 1968. His technical style and sensitivity to emotion should provide a worthwhile experience for everyone.

Emma Winn Dead
 Emma Winn, lifelong resident of Stouffville, passed away at Scarborough Hospital on Friday, Feb. 24. The deceased was in her 84th year and was a daughter of the late George and Emma Winn. The Winn family had occupied the farm home at the top end of Church St. for many years. Along with her late sister Miss Bertha, the couple were two of the most regular attendants at Stouffville United Church. Failing health had forced them to give up the home and move to Parkview Home. The deceased is a sister of Bertha, Rowland, Fred, Clifford and Frank, all deceased. She is also an aunt of Phyllis (Mrs. S.

Sobel) of Columbus, Allan of Toronto, Gertrude (Mrs. C. Kerswill) Stouffville and Walter of Sunderland. The funeral on Monday was conducted from the O'Neill Funeral Home. Spring interment will take place at Stouffville Cemetery.
Prayer Day
 World Day of Prayer Service is being held Friday March 3rd at 7 p.m. at Christ Church Anglican on Sunset Blvd. The theme of this year's service is Community Spirit in modern living. The speaker will be Margaret Britton from Christ Church. Everyone is welcome. Refreshments will be served following the service.
