Claremont news

Local girl takes first

By ANN LONEY
The Lions Clubs of Zone 18 East held their public speaking contest at Claremont Community Hall on Thursday, March 2, 1978. The judges were John Noble, Glenna Feir and Ken Goldring. Ken MacDonald acted as time keeper while Terry Boake and Lorne Harris were tellers. Lion Tom Goldring acted as chairman.

Awarded first in the girls' speeches was Jinna Findlay of Claremont whose topic was "Yawns," second went to Heather Campbell of Ajax speaking on "Child Abuse" and third place was won by Cathy Morin of Stouffville speaking on "Dinosaurs Extinction." Other contestants were Deborah Beauchamp of Markham, choosing "True Friendship" as her topic, and Michelle Scott of Oak Ridges who spoke on "Karen Magnuson."

Boys' results were as follows: first, Robbie Storey of Markham on "Physical Fitness," second, Brian Hearn of Ajax on "Being Short," and third Jeff Mitchell of Oak Ridges on "One of Eight." Others were Derek French of Claremont speaking on "My Hospital Stay" and Tim Blommestyn of Stouffville who spoke on "Cross Country Skiing."

The first and second place winners in both divisions will compete in the District Finals to be held on Wednesday, April 5, at Sunderland commencing at 7:30 p.m.

At the World Day of Prayer in the First Baptist Church on Friday, March 3, the readers were Mrs. Ed Cook, Mrs. Roy Timms, Mrs. W. Chamberlain and Mrs. Lorne Smith. Prayers were by Mrs. Chamberlain and Mrs. Bernard Burnell. The scripture readers were Mrs. Jim Murray, Mrs. Hazel Sanderson and Mrs. Mary Borland. The speaker, Mrs. Jackie Guthrie of R.R. 4, Whitby, gave a most interesting talk, and her fine voice could be heard all through the church.

Donna Painter of Altona was the soloist, a small girl with a marvelous voice. She was accompanied by Mrs. Hugh Mitchell on the organ. After the service the ladies had tea in the Sunday School room and enjoyed a social hour.

Congratulations to Mr. James Wilson, father of Mrs. Mary Borland, who will be 92 years old on Thursday, March 9th. Mr. Wilson, who lives with his daughter, will be the honored guest at a family dinner on his birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Torrance of Lakefield spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gauslin.

The evening unit of the U.C.W. will be held in the home of Marcan Ward on Monday, March 13, at 8 p.m. Bernice Ward will be in charge of the program. The Roll Call — An interesting item from the Observer. The guest speaker is Mrs. Margaret Elliott of Pickering who will show the slides she took while visiting her missionary daughter in Africa.

There were eight tables at the Senior Citizens euchre Thursday evening February 23. The winners were Ella Hammond, Ruby Jones, Elsie Carter, and men, Tom Pepper, George Middleton and Evans Benson. The Lucky Draw was won by Ed Boniface and Mary Hill. After refreshments were served they played the Freeze-out and the winners were Ed Boniface and Mrs. Denny. An invitation was extended to Claremont from Whitevale and were entertained in Whitevale church on February 28 in the afternoon. The guest speaker was Mayor Anderson of Pickering who spoke on the new Town Centre now being proposed.

The Senior Citizens gave up their meeting on Thursday, March 2, to take in the Flower Show in the Exhibition Park in Toronto. They left at 10 a.m. with 23 members and 9 non-members, and left the show at 4 p.m. They stayed for dinner at the home of Mrs. Hazel Sanderson on Wednesday, March 15, at 2 p.m. The guest speaker will be Mrs. Logan of Stouffville. The Roll Call — "A Use of Vinegar." Everyone is welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Hopkins, and Jodi and Jeff, of Agincourt, visited with Terry's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hopkins over the weekend.
