Ski patrol needs recruits to ensure safety on slopes

Contrary to what skiers might believe, The Canadian Ski Patrol System often experiences difficulty in attracting recruits to its ranks.

With a yearly turnover of nearly 30 per cent of its membership the Patrol offers many exciting, "postings" for first-year Patrollers, often in Ski areas throughout Ontario where they now ski. This year's recruiting program is aimed at both the downhill and the cross-country patroller.

New recruits should be fairly proficient skiers of at least a general, "Intermediate" ability, and be dedicated in their desire to encourage safety in the sport.

The Patrol will recognize applicants from 16-years of age right up and do everything it can to place recruits where they might like to Patrol, as a downhill or cross-country patroller.

For Recruiting information, call the Central Zone office at 497-9200.

Still openings for soccer players

Last Saturday's bad weather seems to have put a bit of a damper on the soccer registration.

Although almost 80 kids signed up for the new season, there are still numerous openings in the Mosquito, 10 to 11 age group and about 14 spots open in the Bantam, 14 to 15 year old group. Also

Kinsmen clout Flowers

There's defeat, and then there is humiliation and that's what the Laurelea Flowers must have felt after being whitewashed 10-0 by the Kinsmen team in girls hockey play last week.

The Kinsmen girls could do no wrong and the one sided affair saw an incredible performance by Julie Thompson. Julie was on a one-girl rampage as she scored seven of her team's 10 goals. She also picked up two assists for a total of nine points.

The other three Kinsmen goals were put in by Erin Shepherd. Other assists went to Donna Bangay, three; Julie Goldring, Jannine Smith, with two; and Hadey Todd.

In a much closer game, the Lions dumped Gormley Greenhouses 3-1. Lion's goals came off the sticks of Bonnie Hollingsworth, Janette Cooper and Autumn Gosselin. Assists went to Cathy Phoenix, Kelly McBeth, Bonnie Hollingsworth and Autumn Gosselin.

The lone Gormley goal was put in by Jackie Armet, with Donna Ryckman and Cathy Thomas assisting.

The third girl's game saw the Sales Barn squeak by Credit Union 2-1 on the strength of a two goal performance by Sandy Ramer. Cheryl Singleton and Sandy Hardy assisted on the goals.
