Girls hockey

Bantams take consolation

Stouffville's girls hockey teams put in a strong performance at the Brampton tournament last week.

The Bantam Protective Rustproofing team captured the consolation championship by winning three out of their four games.

The first match had them up against the powerful Brampton team, undefeated in 43 games. Stouffville put up a good fight, but Brampton came out on top, 7-0.

The girls then played Sault Fleet, and took a 4-1 decision, which was followed by a 6-2 victory over Napanee in the third game.

Stouffville then won the consolation by downing Grand Rivene of Toronto, 4-2.

The Bantams were led by the strong play of goalie Anne-Marie Lacoursiere, who in her first year in the nets has shown some outstanding ability.

The second Stouffville girls team at Brampton was the Intermediate A & M Records squad. The girls played well but were knocked out in the semi-finals.

Stouffville dropped their first game 5-2 to Willowdale, but rebounded to take a 4-1 victory over Innesmore. The next game saw the girls demolish Leaside 9-4, with Julie Parish getting four goals. In their final game, Stouffville met up with New Hamburg and were shut out 5-0. Again, it was the girl in goal that

Baseball registration

The first round of baseball registration gets underway this weekend.

Dates for the registration are Saturday, April 1st between 1 and 4 p.m. and Thursday, April 6 between 7 and 9 p.m. The registration is for house league, all star and T-ball.

Stouffville boys and girls sign up at Latham Hall; for those in Ballantrae it's the Whitchurch Centennial Centre and in Vancor registration takes place at the Whitchurch Community Hall.

Registration is $10.50 per child, with a $25 maximum. Anyone between the ages of six to 16 as of January 1st, 1978 is eligible.

For more information call Molly McManningwell at 640-3519 for house league; and Al Piette at 640-1691 for all star.

Girls do well in horse show

Shelley Brown of Stouffville and Kelly Nash of Markham have been working hard this winter with their horses at Foxhunter Farms, with great results.

On March 5th Shelley, with her horse Miss Crestford, was Show Champion at Redstone Horse Show in Richmond Hill.

On March 19th, Kelly rode Cinjon to place 2nd in the Hunter Stake at Pickering Horse Show.

Shelley was Reserve Champion at this show after placing 1st in the Green Hunter and 4th in the Regular Working Hunter Class.
