

WE PICK THE BEST IN FAMOUS BRANDS. SO YOU CAN, TOO!

And that includes our own fine brands. If saving money at the supermarket is just as important as fine quality, try our own A&P brands. They're every bit as good or better than the other famous brands. And you pay less.

Claremont news

Chorus elects local ladies

By Anne Loney
 Women's Institute will take place in the Community Hall on Wednesday, April 19, at 12:30 p.m. This will be a pot luck luncheon, and annual reports will be given. The Roll Call — "Pay Your Dues". Please bring something for the hobby basket.
 Last Saturday, April 8, the Claremont Legion men entered five teams in zone cribbage at Oshawa, and one team placed to go to district at Trenton, Saturday, April 22. Those who went were Dave MacDonald, Larry Brown, Ephrem Albert and Ken Zampoloni.
 On April 26, the Claremont United Church Women's afternoon unit will meet at the United Church Sunday School room at 2 p.m. In charge of Devotion is Edith Stickwood, the Roll Call — "Plant exchange".
 June 1978 marks 25 years for guiding in Claremont. If anyone is interested in helping organize a reunion or has pictures or articles pertaining to guiding in Claremont, please contact Rene Rennie or Aggie Ferguson.

The winners at the Tuesday evening euchre were ladies, Rita Parratt, Aldene Evans, Majorie Hedges and men, Laura Reynolds, sub., Art Parratt and Daryl Norton.
 Last Thursday the Claremont Legion Ladies entertained at a social evening in the Legion Hall. Mrs. Jack Bradshaw welcomed the guests.
 The feature of the evening was a Spring wedding fashion with gowns selected by the House of Ellen of Uxbridge. The flowers were supplied by Keith's Florists from Uxbridge and the fashion commentator was Marlene Webb, also of Uxbridge. Special lighting was furnished by C.F.T.O.

The fashion show was followed by a Spring Bonnet Parade, and after the entertainment the guests sat down to a hot and cold buffet on tables enhanced with lovely yellow roses. About 125 Legion guests came from Uxbridge, Port Perry, Oshawa, Bowmanville, Whitby, Ajax and Bay Ridges.

Sunday, April 23, meet at Edge Pegg's at 1:30 p.m. for Dutchmans Breeches, Squirrel Corn, Hepaticas, Coltsfoot, Spring Beauties, etc. Leader, George Pegg. Pegg's Farm is located at the corner of the seventh concession and Durham Region Road, No. 31, immediately south of the Claremont Conservation Area.
