

Parkview residents enjoy music, films

Parkview residents enjoyed the Thursday evening, April 6th, choral music presentation in the auditorium featuring Rev. Larry Johnson and family of Peterborough. The family consists of Rev. and Mrs. Johnson, their two children, a son aged 4½ and a daughter aged two and Rev. Johnson's mother. The young lad recited one of the Psalms and the little girl sang "Jesus Loves Me". The entire family participated in other numbers with Mrs. Johnson, Sr. on the piano and harp. Rev. Larry Johnson is a grand nephew of one of our residents, Mr. Ira Reesor.

The first Friday of the month is film night and Mahlon Shantz is invariably here with something of interest. The film on Friday, April 7th was entitled "Four Religions".

We are grateful to Rev. John Hamilton of Stouffville Missionary Church for his leadership in the Sunday evening service on April 9th.

While at Parkview we emphasize the importance of seeing each person as an individual and never as a statistic, it is always interesting to recognize age and population information. Today, we wish to share with our readers some statistics which we hope you will find of interest.

As of December 31, 1977 — 31 of our residents were over 90 years of age; 58 were between 80 and 89 years of age; only 14 were under 80. Of the 103 residents in the home on December 31, 24 were men and 79 were ladies. It is apparent most people reaching the upper age levels are of the "weaker sex". The above information applies only to our residents, and does not include the 47 persons living in the Parkview apartments.

Some recent visitors to Parkview include: Anne Prentice of Markham for Miss N. Bond, Mrs. S. Grubin and Rev. I. Jeffrey; Mr. and Mrs. H. Wardell of Newmarket for Rose Crowder; Doris Hoover and Jo-Anne Hill for Mrs. J. Moyer; Jack and Joanne Mairs of Brougham for David Dawson and M. Baird of Stouffville for Mrs. Lapeer.

Mrs. Brooks church worker passes away

Barbara Brooks, a resident of Bethesda, passed away last week after a lengthy illness. Mrs. Brooks, in her 53rd year, worked extensively with the Lemonville United Church women for a number of years.

She is survived by her husband, Stewart; mother, Betty May of Aurora; brother, Leslie May of Agincourt; and two sons, Andrew and David.

The funeral took place last Thursday at O'Neill's Funeral Home, with Rev. Wayne Wardell of the Lemonville United Church conducting the service.

If you don't want to learn any other craft, there is quilting being done. All ladies welcome!

The April meeting of the Victoria Square U.C.W. will be held on Wednesday evening, April 19th at 8 p.m. in the Sunday School room. All ladies welcome!

Special birthday greetings to Olive Glover, a former resident of our community but now of Union Villa, Unionville, who on April 18 will be celebrating her 86th birthday; to Herman Morrison who on April 15 will be celebrating his 84th birthday. Congratulations folks!!!

Kris Mikkelsen, 15 years, April 20.

A speedy recovery is wished for Mrs. Harley Horner who underwent surgery last week in the York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill; and to Dorothy Oliver, a former resident of our community who is ill in the Oshawa General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Collard have returned home after spending the winter in Florida.

Greenwood UC Oyster Supper hamlet tradition

By Mildred McTaggart

The Oyster Supper at the Greenwood United Church, served by the men of the community, has become something of a tradition for this year was the 28th dinner. Over 300 people were served. The women and young people did their part behind the scenes preparing food, washing dishes and the other necessary work, making it a community effort.

Unit One of the U.C.W. met at the home of Mrs. J. Brooks, Padlock Rd., on Wednesday afternoon. The program on the church in the Northwest Territories was taken by Lorraine Nicholson.

Everyone was pleased to see Mrs. Newman feeling better and able to be out to the Oyster Supper on Sunday. Grade Eight mothers are preparing for the Spring Tea at the Valley View School on Saturday, April 15th, 2-4 p.m. There will be door prizes and baked goods for sale. The proceeds go toward the Grade 8 graduation.

Beatrice and Mrs. McLean returned on Friday from a three-week vacation in Florida.

The Couples Club met at the Church on Saturday night for an evening of Fun and Games.

Congratulations to Les and Marion Wilson who celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary last week! Family and friends surprised them with a party at the Community Centre on Friday evening and presented them with an upholstered chair.

Holy Communion was observed in the Church on Sunday morning with Rev. J. Hill of Columbus taking the service. The Junior Choir sang, "Morning has Broken".

Ringwood

Attend wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Morley Cook, Armitage, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Graham, Richmond Hill, were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fockler.

On Sunday evening, April 4, Nancy Wilson and David Rae were honored at a miscellaneous wedding shower in the Lemonville Community Centre.

Lori Fockler enjoyed a vacation recently in Florida.

Several Ringwood people attended the wedding of Ruth Ann Carruthers and Howard Cowan on Saturday afternoon in the Stouffville Missionary Church.

Glen Major Looking like spring

By Jennie Johnson

It's looking more and more like spring. Our snow banks have settled beautifully and the Crocus are showing their lovely bright blooms with other spring flowers doing their best to compete.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Ossie Gill on Saturday were Margaret Searle, Toronto, Freda Grimshaw, Agincourt, and Mr. and Mrs. David Jones and daughter Sandra, Port Perry.

Paul Baster and friend, Kees Tilman, from the Netherlands were luncheon guests with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Jones on Sunday.

Mrs. Brian Hingston and children Andrew, Melissa and Amy spent last week at the farm here.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Meyers and daughter Kerri, Mississauga, were visiting her mother, Edith Gill on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Potter and sons were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Jones on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson were Saturday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Len Sommerville, Seagrave, when the Munro family gathered to celebrate Mr. and Mrs. Ray Munro's wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Charles Fiss, Mrs. Jim Jones, Mrs. Edgar Johnson and Mrs. Joe Forsyth were guests of Mrs. Clarence Thompson Scugog Island, on Friday and enjoyed a day quilting with the Institute Ladies of the Island.

Marta Gill and daughters visiting on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Pickett.

Roly Garvin spent the past two weeks in Toronto.
