Pot luckers hold party

By Elsie Boland

The Pot Luckers held a Tupperware Party and a birthday dinner on Monday at noon for three of their members, Polly Noble, Ella Symes and Elsie Boland. There was a full house and everyone had a good time. Polly was unable to be there as she is in Scarborough Centenary Hospital. Her two daughters took over and they deserve credit for a job well done.

The maple syrup supper held last Wednesday at the United Church was a great success and the ladies wish to thank all those who helped in any way to make this endeavor a success.

Euchre was Wednesday night evening at the Goodwood Hall. The winners at this from this large crowd were Grace Thompson, Carol Swain, Pat Norton, Art Wagg, Art Parrott, Tom Ogden with door prizes going to Maude Feasby, Rowena Hood and Cliff Lee. Next bingo is Wednesday, May 3.

Bingo is Wednesday night, April 26 in the Goodwood Hall at 7:30 p.m. Let's see a full house.

Educational week was a success at the Goodwood School, featuring... parent visitations, open house and a science fair. Science fair winners were in the creative ability category were Annette Postma, David Prescott and Selke Henke, while Jimmy Hewlitt, Ken Tuck and Heather Gribble took prizes in the scientific thought category. Honourable mentions went to John Pipher, Darlene May, Andrew Mercer, Danny Ramey and John Cole.

The Guides and Brownies held their tea and bazaar on Saturday at the Goodwood Hall from 1-3 p.m. The weather was beautiful and the buyers had a great display to choose from. The money goes towards their respective organizations.

On Sunday morning the ladies took the service. Mrs. McDowell was their speaker and a duet by Marion Rulock and Betty Maye was greatly appreciated.

There is a talent night brewing in the Goodwood Public School for the near future.

Glad to hear Artie Parrott is coming along fine and Polly Noble is expected home today.

Man convicted of drunk driving

NEWMARKET - A 48-year-old Whitchurch-Stouffville man has been sent to jail for three months following his conviction for impaired driving here last week.

James Langtry Sawyer was charged by York Regional Police last November after his vehicle crashed into a parked car on Stouffville's Main St., then careened away from the scene. When hauled in to police headquarters Sawyer blew a whopping 260 m.g. on a breathalyzer test.

The Stouffville man was also sentenced to an additional 14 days for failing to take such a test on an earlier charge.

Judge McEwan also told the Stouffville man that his licence to drive will be suspended for a two year period during which time he will be placed on probation.

Local man jailed

NEWMARKET - A 50-year-old Whitchurch-Stouffville man who drives a tractor trailer, was imprisoned last week for 14 days after being convicted on a charge of having the care and control of such a vehicle while impaired.

Donald Coombe was also placed on a 12 month term of probation and his licence suspended three months over the term of suspension imposed under the Highway Traffic Act. The 50-year-old man was also ordered by the court to attend the Alcoholic Research Foundation and follow any treatment that might be prescribed.

Coombe was charged by York Regional Police last November after he was found behind the wheel of the huge truck near the Aurora Sideroad, and Woodbine Ave.

Coombe's counsel told the court that his client had been drinking heavily following domestic problems, and said most of the evening on which he was charged "was a blank."

The court was told that Coombe's offence occurred within seven months of a conviction he had on a similar offence.
