Couple returns after 25 years in Nigeria

By EVELYN MILSTED
The latest word from Mr. and Mrs. Allan Doner of Ilorin, Nigeria, Africa is that they expect to arrive home on July 21. They have served for 25 years in Nigeria in several areas of Missionary service. For several years Allan has served as the Supt. of the Nigerian Church and during that time has helped the native church become a fully independent organization. Dorine has taught for many years in the teacher training college at Mokwa and more recently in the theological college in Ilorin. Both Allan and Dorine have been supported by the Gormley Missionary Church. Both were raised in the Gormley area. They will not be returning to Nigeria, and expect to locate in Kitchener where their son Dale has been for a number of years. Belated congratulations to Mr. and

Mrs. John Meads who recently celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Their family had a surprise dinner for them. They now live in Richmond Hill but they were Gormley residents for a number of years. Mrs. Meads is now recuperating from surgery in York Central Hospital in Richmond Hill. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. James Ash (nee Mrs. Annie Phillips of Temperanceville) who were married on Saturday in the United Church at Mount Albert. Marnie Ashton won the top Athletic Trophy for girls in Grade 7 at the Crosby Heights Sr. School. Congratulations, Marnie! Helen Henry of Toronto spent the weekend with Genevieve Bruce. Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Savelli have begun building their new bungalow four doors south of the Gormley post office. Congratulations to Laura Cornes who was chosen by the Phys. Ed. Dept. of Richmond Hill Secondary School as the only girl to attend the leadership and athletic camp at Bark Lake for eight days all expenses paid. One boy and one girl are chosen annually to represent the school. Susan and Faye Rosenberger both received trophies for academic achievement at the Lake Wicox Public School. Nadine Baker and

David Wright graduated from Crosby Heights Sr. Public School on Wednesday night. Nadine will attend Bayview Secondary School, and David will attend Richmond Hill Secondary School in September. Shelley Winter and Evonne Johnson attended a Young People's Retreat from Banfield Church in Willowdale. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Harvey and family, and Michael Wright spent the weekend at their cottage on Four Mile Lake. About $150 was raised in the recent Acorn Bank Breaking Day at the Missionary Church. The children use these banks during the year to raise money for missionary children. Quite a number of people from the Heise Hill Church attended the biennial Conference of the Brethren in Christ Churches at Messiah College in Grantham, Penn. This was the 200th anniversary celebration as a denomination. Delegates from the local church were Clifford Winger and Harold Wideman, and Lorna Hoegg. The Gideons will conduct the 11 a.m. service on July 9 at the Heise Hill Church. Rev. Roy Nigh will speak at the 7:30 p.m. service. A delegate from the Gideon Convention held this week in Toronto will speak at the 11 a.m. service July 9 at the Missionary Church. Clara Wells, our 91 year old citizen, has just returned from a month's visit with her family in Shellbrook, Sask. Gary Empringham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Empringham, had his spleen removed in York Central Hospital on June 27. He hopes to be home from the hospital later this week.

Goodwood L.O.L. 572 and L.O.B.A. 1090 will hold their sixth annual Assembly Parade in the hamlet. The parade, to commence at 10:00 a.m., will leave the Orange Hall and proceed south to Highway 47, east to Tindall Lane, south to Durham Road 21, west to Concession 3, north to Highway 47, and west to the Community Park where it will end. This parade will be held prior to the lodges leaving for the 288th Boyne Celebrations to be held this year in Sutton. At both the parades in Goodwood and Sutton the lodges will be accompanied by the Uxbridge Legion Pipe Band. Goodwood L.O.L. 572 will sponsor a dance to be held in the Goodwood Community Hall on July 8 at 8:30 p.m. Tickets are available at $6.00 per couple. Sheep Focus '78, sponsored by the Ontario Sheep Association, will be held July 14-15 at Markham Fair Grounds, Markham, Ontario, and will bring together all segments of the Ontario sheep industry — breeders, producers, spinners and weavers, consumers and suppliers of goods and services for sheep producers. Activities begin at noon on Friday, July 14, and continue until 5:00 p.m. on Saturday, July 15. Don't miss Sheep Focus '78. The program will interest everyone connected with the Ontario sheep industry, from producer to consumer. For further information contact Mr. Chris Williams; Secretary, Sheep Focus '78, R.R. 2, Dundalk, Ontario NOC 1B0. Goodwood Fair Board disbands

By ELSIE BOLAND
The Orange Lodge will hold their parade on Saturday, July 8 at 10 a.m. In the evening there will be a dance in the Goodwood Hall. Tickets are available at $6 a couple.
On June 28 several of the Pot Luckers motored to Marjorie Stewart's cottage and celebrated Joyce McGuigans birthday.
The Goodwood Fair Board met in Goodwood Hall last Tuesday and disbanded after having disposed of their assets as follows: tennis lessons, $800; Baptist Church girls group, $100; women's institute, $100; Baptist boys' brigade groups, $200; childrens play group, $100; 4H club, $100; Goodwood brownies, $100; Goodwood girl guides, $100; Uxbridge Cottage Hospital, $100; Goodwood minor ball, $100; family life centre, $100; Goodwood park (Hall improvements) $258; Park board re-ice surface $474.76, and to the three churches $50 each.
All interested people are asked to a shower for Lorie York on Monday evening July 10th at Dorothy and Eldon Yokes residence at 8 p.m. Lorie is marrying Don Sturgess. He's the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sturgess of Goodwood. Please note, ladies provide lunch.
After a lapse of five years, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Percy and Bert Maye had supper with Mr. and Mrs. Reubon Maye and family.
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kramer and three children of Winnipeg are visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Woodland before going to Vancouver.
The Institute Ladies travelled to Elmira by bus yesterday (Wednesday).
During this week, Bible club movement programs are being held at the homes of Olive Maye, Mrs. Ken Hockley, Mrs. Stan Todd, Mrs. Robert Mercer. The representative is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Jones.
Another landmark burned to the ground in the high winds last Wednesday when the late Geo. Collins bee house was engulfed in flames.
Many residents travelled to Beaverton with the mission circle and spent the day with the residence people who enjoyed visiting and being visited. It was a pleasure to visit with Minnie White (Sellars) an old time resident of Goodwood whose father worked on the railroad for years. She spoke of her sister Clara and brother Bob who lives in Toronto.
There is no service in the Baptist Church in the evening until September. Morning services as usual in the Baptist and United Churches. Come on out and meet your neighbours.
Sorry to hear Harvey Maye is not feeling so spry.
We have an empty store at Goodwood that would make an excellent tea room or hamburger counter — with an apartment upstairs. Why doesn't someone get cracking? After the next park board meeting the counter at the baseball diamond will be open.
Bingo is Wednesday night in the Goodwood Hall.

Many events in Victoria Square

By MARION SANDLE 883-1838
Congratulations to the following pupils from this area who graduated from the Crosby Heights Sr. Public School, Richmond Hill on Wednesday evening of last week.
Carrie Bennett, Beth Boyd, Mary Boynton, Dale McClean, Robin Mortson, Cathy Nelson, Leslie Nigh and Susan Sanderson.
We wish these students much success as they advance to higher learning. We also wish those in elementary school who have passed to a higher grade much success in the coming term.
There is also a Girl's Pee Wee Softball team at Victoria Square. The home games for this team are every Tuesday evening at the park. Coaching this team is Kay Mikkelsen and Jim Barker.
The flowers in the church on Sunday morning were in loving memory of Dorothy Oliver who was laid to rest in the Victoria Square Cemetery on Friday afternoon.
The many friends of Mrs. Reid Brumwell will be pleased to hear that she is able to be home from the Scarborough Centenary Hospital.
The many friends of Dorothy Oliver were sorry to learn of her passing on Wednesday evening in the Oshawa Hospital, following a lengthy illness. Dorothy was a former resident of our community a number of years ago until she moved to Highland Creek.
Birthday greetings to Earl Empringham, July 10; Mark Ottawa, July 10; Don Boynton, July 11; Wilbur Brumwell, July 12; Christine Gee, 12 years, July 13.
