Claremont friends stage shower for bride-to-be

By Rosemary Timms 649-2431
Pretty bride to be Wendy Baker of Stouffville has been honoured with five showers in the past two months, three of them were held in Claremont.

Wendy had an unusual kind of shower on July 14 in Claremont - a surprise stag. This was not for her husband to be even if it was held at his parents home but was for herself... I guess you are thinking you have heard everything now and what do you do at a girl's stag? Well read on folks you'll find out. The stag was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Hockley, given by Mrs. Bruce Malcolm of R.R. 5 Sunderland, Ontario.

This Sunday, July 30, will be the last joint summer church service of the First Baptist Church and Claremont United Church held in the Baptist Church with Rev. Lorne E. Smith in charge of the service. His sermon will be on "Love and You Will Live". On Sunday, August 6th, the joint summer services will be held in the Claremont United Church at 11:15 a.m. with Rev. Edward Cook officiating at the service. Clarion Baker of R.R. 2 Stouffville, Ontario will be the organist.

To begin with the evening started with a nice quiet game of euchre. After the game was finished and prizes were given out a mock wedding was staged for Wendy. Characters were as follows: minister was Rosemary Timms; father of the bride (with a shotgun in her hand) was Noreen Hill; matron of honour, Mrs. Robert Roszell, best man was Mrs. Gord Hodgson, groom Cathy Blow, bride was Mrs. Jim Kennedy and the one who objected to the bride marrying the groom was Doris Lake. This mock wedding was sight to behold and everyone thoroughly enjoyed themselves. Incidentally the script was written by none other than myself, Rosemary Timms. A lovely lunch was then served to the guests and bridal party. A good time was had by all. Oh by the way Wendy is going to be marrying Donald Hockley on August 5th in Stouffville.

Birthdays - Congratulations to Jeffrey Malcolm who celebrated his third birthday.

Local happenings in Goodwood

others have missed a great speaker. However, he will speak at the Goodwood Institute in the future so you still have a chance to hear him. Date to be announced later.

Last week everyone was suffering from heat and lack of rain but showers of blessings were received and things have cooled down.

A big baseball tournament was held Saturday at the park. Goodwood Jrs. won the consolation prize of $50 while Whitby Selects were the winners of the day. The booth has been opened for the games and must have done big business on Saturday due to the crowd. In the evening the hall was filled for the baseball dance and so was the parking lot. Really a wonderful day for all concerned.

despite the shower which was badly needed. Goodwood squirts have done better than reported earlier. They have never lost a game this year and only have one game left to play - here's hoping they keep their perfect record.

Baseball playoffs start Aug. 8 and the T ball tourney is planned for Aug. 12.

Did anyone forget about the bingo last Wed. night? Keep Wed., Aug. 2 open-bingo and good times start at 7.30 sharp.

The fire on the 20th was at the Carlson's, not the Clarksons as stated in last week's paper.

Sorry to hear Mr. Forrest Johnson has been in the hospital for three weeks. We hope he is home again and feeling better.

Stouffville's Murray Wagg

Murray Wagg

Elected as district deputy

For the first time in 26 years, Stouffville has a District Deputy Grand Master of the Masonic Lodge.

He's Murray Wagg, who lives on Tindale Lane, and he was elected that prestigious position at the 123rd annual provincial meeting held in Toronto last week.

Murray was picked as District Deputy for Toronto District 3. He will be overseeing operations in 17 lodges, in the Toronto and surrounding area, including the local Stouffville Richardson Masonic Lodge.

As Murray explained, his duties will be "to visit each of the 17 lodges at least once a year to ensure the working of the lodge is in accordance to the grand lodge constitution and bylaws."

Although there were over 4,000 delegates representing lodges across Ontario, Murray noted that only those delegates in each district can vote for their district deputy.

Murray, who has lived all of his 48 years in Stouffville, has been associated with the lodge for 21 years. Like most everyone through the years he has moved up the lodge hierarchy, from a master of the Stouffville Lodge to education chairman of the district.

Although the office of district deputy is just third down from the grand master of Ontario, Murray said he has no "aspirations for the grand mastership, I'm extremely happy with this position."

The last Stouffville district deputy was Arthur Weldon in 1952, Murray noted. And he further commented that at his swearing in ceremony, 23 of the past Stouffville lodge masters were present, the oldest one was Shine Davis, who was lodge master in 1923.

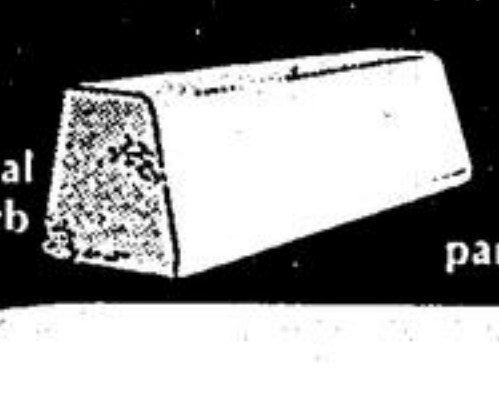

Besides Murray, brother Ken is also actively involved with the Masonic lodge. Ken has been assigned to the district secretary.
