Teenager murdered

Every police officer in the York Region could have been called in Saturday night at a Thornhill apartment when one Oak Ridges teenager was stabbed to death and four others were slashed, two seriously. Police said Constables William Whyte and Gary McBrien of 28 Division answered a call to the apartment house at 7433 Yonge Street, near Clarke Avenue, at 10:45 p.m., August 19 where a dispute had broken out in a fifth floor corridor as guests were leaving a "noisy" party. Police said another tenant became angry and as the youths left they were stabbed with a 10-inch butcher knife. Richard Lusk, 21, Sunset Beach Road, was dead on arrival at York Central Hospital. Stephen MacKinnon, 18, North Lake Road is in intensive care with serious abdominal wounds. Carl Robert Kerr, 17, Bayview Avenue, has serious slash wounds to his upper arm; the deceased boy's brother Terrance Lusk, 17, and John Tapp, 19, Aubrey Avenue, all of Oak Ridges, were treated for wounds and released. Errol Michael Figueira, 23, 7433 Yonge St. charged with second degree murder, two counts of attempted murder, and wounding.

Chief Bruce Crawford

In small claims court

NEWMARKET — The York Regional Police Chief Bruce Crawford is involved in an action being brought to the Small Claims Court of York County.

The action has been brought by Dwiday Canada Ltd. and is against Calce Leonard of the W. R. Scott Funeral Home in Vaughan and the chief.

"How did we get involved in a small claims court action?" asked a bewildered Vice-Chairman

Gordon Cook last week at the police commission meeting.

Chief Crawford explained that an action had been launched after an accident which occurred during a funeral procession.

No police escort had been provided for the occasion and the complainant, whose vehicle suffered $400 damages, is suing the funeral home and the chief as a result.
