Bicycling, at least for Melanie Chung, 4, and Kerry Smith, 10, is a combined effort. Melanie operated the pedals and Kerry pushed with her feet and balanced. The two girls were in no danger as they stayed on the grass adjacent to the ball diamond in the town park. The two youngsters were part of the crowd watching the midget girl's softball tournament. —John Montgomery

Walker attacked

John Williams, 57, Maystone Ct., Stouffville told police he was walking his dog August 15 at 9:45 p.m. on Winlane Drive, when a small dog attacked his animal. Mr. Williams said he was trying to separate the two when an unknown man came from nowhere, attacked him with a blow to the head and mouth and then left.

Police investigated, and at 9:50 p.m. August 17 arrested Wm. Frederick Lehman, 31, at his residence on Concession 9, Whitchurch - Stouffville. He appeared at Newmarket Court August 19 charged with common assault.

Local driver charged

A Clarendon man has been summonsed for dangerous driving and common assault after Steven Cheslie of Agincourt complained of traffic violations and an assault on Woodbine Avenue.

Mr. Cheslie told York Regional Police that he was driving on Hwy No. 7 at 5:40 p.m. August 13 when the accused man allegedly made several 'deliberate' lane changes in Mr. Cheslie's path.

The two drivers exchanged a few words during a stop at Woodbine Avenue, then Mr. Cheslie says he was chased at high speed south on Woodbine Avenue.

At Steelcase Road he alleges he was punched and kicked after both stopped there. Police investigated. William Daniel Bowes, 44, Lot 34, Conic 7, Clarendon will appear at Newmarket Court October 3.
