Diane Reid

'77 Fair Queen

"A good experience"

MARKHAM — She's not a winner, but she "wouldn't have missed it for the world," said Diane Reid, Peter Street, Markham.

The 20-year-old brunette, a receptionist in the Town Engineering Department, represented Markham in the Queen of the Fairs pageant at the C.N.E. recently.

Besides, she said, "we felt we all really left winners."

Diane competed with 95 other girls across Ontario for the Miss C.N.E. Title. Even though she didn't win, she received a silver charm bracelet for her efforts.

And of course there are the memories of a whirlwind two-day event.

Diane exclaimed, "I think it was fun meeting all the people down there."

Not only were there the girls, the C.N.E. representatives, but Diane also met groups like the Argonaut Football Club.

"We had a great time together, when we had time to ourselves," she noted.

According to Diane, much of the time away from the competition was taken up with luncheons and sightseeing, but this was difficult to enjoy because of the pressure.

Diane felt it was a good experience because "your eyes are opened as to what people are actually like."

The titles of Miss Markham Fair and Miss C.N.E., explained Diane, are still awarded for knowledge of agriculture.

She offered some tips for girls planning to enter the Markham Fair competition; study the subject and contribute as much as possible to the Fair.

She hopes the title "Miss Markham Fair" wouldn't scare girls from the Stouffville area away from the contest.

"We've always considered Stouffville a part of the Fair because so many exhibitors come from there," she added.

The closing date for entries is Sept. 9. The crowning will take place Sept. 16.

Diane Reid, Peter Street, Markham, represented Markham Fair in the recent Miss C.N.E. Pageant and appreciated the opportunity of taking part. She's hopeful girls from the Stouffville area will enter the Fair contest this fall. The deadline for entries is Sept. 9.

Davidson Bros.

Barley - 99%

STOUFFVILLE — Despite a mid-summer drought that stunted the growth of most crops, Alex and Bruce Davidson of R. R. 1, Stouffville, scored 99 points out of 100 on their barley entry, a competition sponsored by the Markham and East York Agricultural Society. Eleven farmers in the Markham-Stouffville area participated.

The runner-up was Brian Richards of Stouffville with 98.5. Third was Harvey Brown, Markham, R. R. 2 at 98. Others in order were — Ray Grant, R. R. 1, Stouffville; Allin Lewis, R. R. 2, Markham; Mike Larkin, R. R. 2, Markham; Jim Rae, R. R. 4, Stouffville; Stouffville; Floyd Forsyth, R. R. 2, Stouffville; Trevor Watson, R. R. 2, Markham; Jack Warriner, R. R. 2, Markham and Robert Foote, R. R. 1, Stouffville.

Top Wheat Entry

In the Wheat Class of the Markham Fair Field Crop Competition, Floyd Forsyth of R. R. 2, Stouffville had the top entry with a score of 98.5. Second was Trevor Watson, R. R. 2, Markham with 97.5 and Ray Grant, R. R. 1, Stouffville, 97. Following in order were — Mike Larkin, R. R. 2, Markham; Grant Davidson, R. R. 1, Stouffville; Jack Warriner, R. R. 2, Markham; Alex Davidson, R. R. 1, Stouffville; Eugene Lemon, R. R. 2, Stouffville and Allin Lewis, R. R. 2, Markham.

Best Oat Exhibit

Eugene Lemon of R. R. 2, Stouffville had the best Oat entry in the competition. He scored 97 with his exhibit. Floyd Forsyth was close behind with a 96.5 and Allin Lewis with an even 96. Others followed — Bruce Risebrough, R. R. 2, Markham; Jim Rae, R. R. 4, Stouffville; Jack Warriner, R. R. 2, Markham; Harvey Brown, R. R. 2, Markham; Grant Davidson, R. R. 1, Stouffville and Alex Davidson, R. R. 1, Stouffville.

Teevee International

Sold to Global

MARKHAM — Global Communications Limited of Don Mills, has agreed to acquire all outstanding shares of Tee Vee Records Inc., an Ontario-based corporation with office headquarters at 60 Bullock Drive, Markham.

The announced purchase was revealed last week by Seymour Epstein, Chairman of the Executive Committee at Global.

Tee Vee International Incorporated, carries on the business of publishing, producing and distributing records, tapes and television specials by such major artists as Charley Pride, Englebert Humperdinck and Carroll Baker. Tee Vee Records' success at creating albums by such noted artists as Elvis Presley, Roger Whittaker, Connie Francis and Conway Twitty and its extensive network of retail distributors was a major factor in Global's decision to acquire the company, Mr. Epstein said.
